Astronauts OK; Make 'Pinpoint Landing'

ABOARD USS GUADALCANAL (AP) — Climaxing a 10-day space flight that qualified all Apollo hardware for voyages to the moon, the Apollo 9 astronauts parachuted to a pinpoint landing in the Atlantic Ocean today and were quickly hoisted aboard the recovery ship Guadalcanal.

Air Force Cols. James A. McDivitt and David R. Scott and civilian Russell L. Schweickart rode their durable spaceship to a splashdown in gentle seas within sight of this helicopter carrier stationed 300 miles north of Puerto Rico.

The helicopter deposited McDivitt, Scott and Schweickart on the Guadalcanal deck at 12:49 p.m., just 48 minutes after they returned to earth.

They touched down at 12:01 p.m. EST, ending a significant mission that advanced the United States a major step toward an historic landing two men on the moon in July.

The pinpoint landing was a fitting climax for a flight that had been perfect all the way.

Television pictures, relayed through a communications satellite, enabled millions of Americans to share the triumph of their newest space heroes on their successful return to earth.

Viewers had a ringside seat as cameras focused in on the Apollo 9 floating down from space, dangling under three 83-foot orange and white parachutes.

Hundreds of sailors, wearing dress blue, lined the deck of the Guadalcanal to watch the stirring sight. A loud cheer erupted here and in Mission Control Center in Houston as the ship hit the water.

Their main assignment was to prove the flight readiness of the lunar module, or LEM, the ungainly-looking vehicle designed to land two men on the moon.

Apollo 9 linked up with the LEM soon after launching and, in three rigorous days of testing, the astronauts proved that it was spaceworthy, ready for a trip to the moon.

The key test came when McDivitt and Schweickart separated the LEM from the command ship, flew 113 miles away and then returned, maneuvers astronauts must make in launching themselves from the moon.

Schweickart became nauseated and vomited twice on the third day, forcing Mission Control to cancel a two-hour space walk planned the next day. By morning, McDivitt decided Schweickart was well enough to step outside for 45 minutes on an abbreviated stroll.

Standing on a platform outside the LEM, Schweickart wore the suit that will protect astronauts on the moon. For the first time, an American astronaut received life-giving oxygen from a pack on his back.

After kicking the LEM free in space, the spacemen spent the final five days demonstrating the durability of the command ship for 10 days, the maximum time presently planned for man-to-the-moon trips.

Plans already are under way for launching Apollo 10 into lunar orbit with another LEM.

The Saturn 5 rocket was rolled to a Cape Kennedy launch pad Tuesday, aiming for a May 17 launching.

Astronauts Thomas P. Stafford and Eugene A. Cernan are to ride the LEM to within 10 miles of the moon's surface while John W. Young circles 60 miles above them. Their lunar module could land on the moon but it is too heavy to lift off.

Success would clear the way for the Apollo 11 crew to blast off July 15 on the historic lunar landing journey. Neil A. Armstrong and Edwin A. Aldrin are to descend to the surface while Michael Collins orbits, awaiting their return.

Some confident National Aeronautics and Space Administration officials have considered skipping Apollo 10 and moving directly to the Apollo 11 landing mission, with a June launching possible.

A decision is expected in late March after a thorough review of the Apollo 9 flight.

Senate Votes On A-Ban Pact At Early Meet

Full Two-Thirds Approval Seen After Delays

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate called an unusually early session today for a final vote on the long-pending nuclear non-proliferation treaty, marking the end of an eight-month delay caused by international tensions and domestic politics.

The necessary two-thirds approval was fully expected for the treaty, which was originally submitted to the Senate last July by former President Johnson. It was reported to the floor during the summer but the Soviet invasion of Czechoslovakia caused many members to call for postponement.

President Nixon, then campaigning, also advised delay because he felt ratification then might indicate U.S. approval of the invasion. His stand was considered to have influenced many Republicans and the Senate leadership deferred action.

After his inauguration, President Nixon said he favored ratification and resubmitted it to the Senate.

Under the pact, atomic powers promise not to turn nuclear arms over to have-not nations. The latter agree to they will neither develop nor acquire such weapons.

In return for foregoing atomic arms, the nonnuclear countries are promised they will share in peaceful uses of the atom.

The treaty will come into force when ratified by this country, the Soviet Union, Great Britain, and any 40 other nations.

Of the nuclear powers, Great Britain is the only to have ratified so far. Russia is expected to. France and Red China have refused to join in the agreement.

Speedy Woman Ignores Lesson

LONDON, Ohio (AP) — An airplane speed check set up by the Ohio Highway Patrol Wednesday morning on U.S. 40 clocked Mrs. M. A. Conavey, 43, driving 86 miles per hour, police said.

In the afternoon, he said, the speed check was moved to the southbound lane of I-71, where Mrs. Conavey was caught whizzing along at 98 m.p.h.

She was cited for speeding both times and must appear in London Municipal Court.

U.S., Hanoi Trade Barbs At Paris

PARIS (AP) — The U.S. and South Vietnamese delegations bitterly assailed Communist terror tactics in South Vietnam at the Paris peace talks today, and the Viet Cong warned the Americans against taking any "appropriate response."

A new round of accusations at the eighth weekly session of the enlarged talks made clear that the deadlock was as hard as ever.

U.S. Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge denounced the other side for attacks in South Vietnam seeking "to terrorize the civilian population into submission."

South Vietnamese Ambassador Pham Dang Lam accused the Viet Cong and the North Vietnamese of plans to expand the war, "seriously threatening peace in the Indochinese peninsula, Southeast Asia and in the whole world."

Tran Buu Kiem of the Viet Cong's National Liberation Front warned the Americans against taking the "appropriate response" to the current Viet Cong offensive which President Nixon had threatened.

"If the U.S. administration commits new adventurous acts of war under the pretext of appropriate response" to recent attacks by the Liberation Armed Forces and the people of South Vietnam," Kiem said, "it will bear full responsibility for the consequences arising from these serious acts."

Kiem said the United States by its Vietnam policy had been led into "the most ignominious failure in the American history of war." He said President Nixon and the new U.S. administration should "not forget this historical lesson."

Lodge accused the Viet Cong and the new U.S. administration of treating the civilian population of South Vietnam as a target.

"Your troops mine highways and railroads," he said. "They kill and maim innocent passengers on civilian buses and trains. They assassinate government officials."

They seek to terrorize the civilian population into submission. For this purpose they fire mortars and rockets into cities and towns. Your troops fire deliberately into villages and hamlets in order to draw fire upon innocent civilians."

"These things are an old story to the people of South Vietnam. They have known for many years that those seeking the overthrow of their government, knowing they cannot expect support at the ballot box, use terror, sabotage, coercion and intimidation as their methods."

10,876 Reds Said Slain In 2 Weeks

SAIGON (AP) — The U.S. Command reported today that 739 American troops were killed in action during the first 14 days of the Viet Cong's 19-day-old spring offensive, an average of 56 battlefield deaths every 24 hours.

The weekly casualty report issued by U.S. Headquarters said 36 Americans died in action during the week of March 2-8, the second week of the current offensive.

This was 117 less than the 453 Americans reported killed during the first week of the offensive. But it was double the average of 170 Americans killed each week this year until the offensive began.

South Vietnamese and enemy casualties also were substantially less than the week before, according to the weekly allied summaries.

The Saigon government said 259 of its men were killed, while the two allied commands reported 4,063 Viet Cong and North Vietnamese battle dead. With 521 government troops and 6,873 of the enemy reported killed the week before, this brought Viet-

BULLETIN

BEIRUT, Lebanon (AP) — Cairo radio reported a battle under way on the Suez Canal front today with Israelis and Egyptians using rockets, artillery, mortars and light weapons.

The radio claimed the Israelis started shooting first at the townships of El Qantara, Firdan and Ismailia, and then spread their fire southward to Suez Port. The battle was going on along the entire 103-mile front, the radio reported.

Navy Inquiry Into Pueblo Capture Ends

CORONADO, Calif. (AP) — For probably the last time, Cmdr. Lloyd M. Bucher goes again today before a Navy court of inquiry investigating the capture of the Pueblo by North Korea.

After closing statements, the eight-week inquiry will be over, barring last-minute recall of witnesses.

Bucher, thin and silver-haired from his 11-month prison ordeal, could be recommended for the Medal of Honor—or for court-martial, which could give him a maximum sentence of two years in prison and dismissal from the Navy.

He has been warned by the court that he is suspected of violating a Navy regulation against giving up his intelligence ship and his men while he had the power to resist.

His 81 surviving crewmen also have been questioned intensively.

The five admirals on the court will write "findings of fact, opinions and recommendations" after deliberating several days. How or when they will be made public hasn't been determined.

The final days of questioning focused sharply on Bucher's decision to surrender the Pueblo without a fight. His main defense was a desire not to "start a war out there."

The Pueblo was seized Jan. 23, 1968, by North Korean gunboats which raked the vessel with cannon and machine-gun fire, wounding Bucher and several crewmen, one of them fatally.

Budget Surplus Seen By Johnson Fast Vanishing

WASHINGTON (AP) — The $2.4 billion budget surplus announced for fiscal 1969 by former President Johnson now looks so emaciated that President Nixon may have trouble keeping it from vanishing entirely.

The thin margin of black ink appears to be down to $1 billion or less for the year ending June 30, and the administration's quest for cost cuts has failed to turn up any substantial economies.

Cabinet officers have completed an agency-by-agency canvass of potential savings. Budget Director Robert P. Mayo reported the results briefly and orally to Nixon last week, it was learned, and they were largely negative.

In fact, a number of the spending estimates bequeathed by Johnson—for programs whose outlays are automatic or beyond executive control—were found to be too low.

"For many items, the budget figures were at the lower end of a reasonable range of estimates," one official said. "This can't be called dishonest, it's a natural thing to do."

"But if you have skinny estimates all along the way, there's no room left for errors or accidents. The Johnson budget figures are bound to be exceeded."

Budget Director Mayo has predicted that the $183.7 billion budget can be kept out of deficit—there will still be a surplus, he insists, though "not a very robust one."

Tax collections may exceed expectations, but there are no new official estimates. In fact, a $500 million shortfall in revenues is more than possible, because if Congress does not adopt an extension of the 10 per cent surtax before June 15, corporations won't include the surtax payments in their quarterly tax installments due April 15 and June 15. And the surtax issue is likely to be tied up in congressional debate well into the summer.

Such a delay would wipe out more than one-fifth of Nixon's elbow room, squeezing the surplus below $2 billion. And that's just part of the squeeze.

Warmer Air Slowly Coming

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Milder air seeped into frost-bitten sections of the country from the Rockies to the Atlantic today, but relief was slight and temperatures dipped below freezing for the third day in parts of the Southeast.

Although readings 10 to 15 degrees higher than a day earlier were widespread, the mercury once again fell into the middle 20s from the Virginias south over Georgia. Lows in the teens generally were confined to the Rockies and northern-border states.

Light snow or flurries sifted into the region from the northern Great Lakes to interior New England. Light rain dampened portions of Florida and California.

Ray Now Wishes He Hadn't Pleaded Guilty

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
James Earl Ray, quoted as wishing now he had elected to stand trial for the Martin Luther King assassination, was joined in his regrets today by the U.S. Justice Department.

A source in the department said the feeling there over Ray's abrupt guilty plea "is one of frustration." The reason: a full-fledged trial, had one been held, might have shed light on questions which have led to widespread suspicion around the country that Ray was only one figure in a conspiracy.

In Nashville, the Nashville Tennessean said in a copyright story that Ray disclosed second thoughts about the guilty plea within hours of his sentencing in Memphis to an agreed 99 years in prison. Ray also has inquired about how he could hire a new attorney, the paper said.

The story said unidentified official sources quoted Ray as saying: "When I went to court Monday I was convinced if I didn't plead guilty I was going to the electric chair. I wish the hell I hadn't now because with what they had on me I believe they thought this could be done."

"I was thinking about it and every day they thought I would plead guilty. Last week I just told them if they thought this was best and what I ought to do, then I would plead guilty."

In Washington, Justice Department sources acknowledged the government was informed in advance that Ray would plead guilty and take 99 years.

The Tennessee said a prison source further quoted Ray: "My attorney and my brother told me about six weeks ago that the best thing for me to do was to plead guilty if we could work out a deal to keep me out of the chair. They told me they thought this could be done."

"I was thinking about it and every day they thought I would plead guilty. Last week I just told them if they thought this was best and what I ought to do, then I would plead guilty."

The charge was brought under an 1870 Reconstruction era statute and conviction would have carried a maximum 10-year sentence.

After Ray was apprehended last June in England, he was returned to Tennessee to face the more serious murder charge.

The government's only involvement in the case since came Monday—after the trial ended—when the Justice Department announced the "conspiracy allegation is still open."

But there has been no word on what action, if any, the department plans in pursuing its investigation.

Soviet Fishing Trawler Sunk; All Aboard Die

PORTSMOUTH, Va. (AP) — A Panamanian tanker and a Soviet fishing trawler collided in pre-dawn darkness of the North Carolina coast today, the Coast Guard said, and the Russian vessel was reported to have sunk with all hands lost.

Fifteen crewmen were believed to have been aboard. Lt. (j.g.) Howard E. Copeland, 5th Coast Guard District information officer, said the collision occurred about 4 a.m. and was reported by the chief of a Soviet fishing fleet that has been sighted off the East Coast for the past month.

A Coast Guard airplane, helicopter and a 44-foot surfboat were sent to the scene, some 31 miles off Oregon Inlet and reported finding an oil slick, debris and an empty life raft.

THE local weather observer is "tuned in" to our wishes and came up with a forecast for two days of fine pre-Spring weather or sunny skies and warmer temperatures.

THE jury heard for the first time Sirhan's voice on tape recordings made within a half hour of Kennedy's shooting early June 5 of last year.

Those early moments in the police station—after policemen hustled him away from a distraught, menacing crowd—had been described previously. But the tapes demonstrated more vividly than any testimony how gentle, almost solicitously, Sirhan was treated by police.

names battle dead during the first two weeks of the offensive to 780 government troops and 10,876 of the enemy.

Military analysts, noting the drop in casualties, said that enemy attacks last week declined from the level of the first seven days of the offensive. They said, however, that the Communist command apparently was regrouping and resupplying its units in preparation for a new phase of the offensive.

The U.S. Command also announced 1,694 Americans were wounded last week, compared with 2,593 the previous week. South Vietnamese wounded totaled 1,058, down from 2,072 the week before. Another 27 South Vietnamese were listed as missing in action last week.

The weekly summary raised American casualties in Vietnam since Jan. 1, 1961, to 32,712 killed in action, 206,182 wounded and 1,321 missing or captured. The U.S. Command said at least 461,256 Viet Cong and North Vietnamese have been killed in those eight years.

Meanwhile, the Viet Cong stepped up its offensive again today, pummeling about 40 military bases and towns with mortars and rockets during the night.

Hugh Dresbach Wins District SCS Award

Hugh Dresbach, a student from Logan Elm High School, won the Pickaway Soil and Water Conservation District's science contest Thursday.

Dresbach's project was on water pollution. He will receive a plaque presented by the Federal Land Bank. He is eligible to enter the area contest which will be held April 17 in Washington, C. H.

Brenda Mills, also of Logan Elm, had a project on flood control entered in the contest.

Five junior high students from Pickaway Twp. entered the contest. Vanessa Mills' project on algae won the junior high competition. She will also receive a plaque.

Other junior high projects were Mark Bower, soils; Mark Phillips, conservation; Janet Wolford, farm pond; Paul Bailey, industrial wastes.

The science program sponsored by Soil and water districts throughout the state leads ultimately to a state contest at Kent State University in July with the winner receiving a $500 scholarship. Second place award in the state is a $250 scholarship.

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP) — Another fire at a suburban apartment complex under construction destroyed the 40-apartment building just south of the Toledo city limits early today, causing damage estimated at between $400,000 and $500,000.

None of the buildings was occupied and no one was injured. Cause of the fire was not determined immediately but the state fire marshal's office was notified and an investigation is already under way.

Firemen from the Maumee, Monclova and Springfield Township departments battled the blaze for an hour and a half before bringing it under control. A section of the same apartment complex, Byrnick Apartments, burned last January at a loss of $250,000.

Another new apartment complex across the street with only a few people occupying the buildings was threatened for a time by embers from the Brynick blaze, but damage was slight to the roof of one building.

Special Ohio History Fund Set

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The Ohio Historical Society reported today that a special fund to publish Ohio local history has been received as a gift from Charles E. Frohman Sandusky industrialist and local historian. The society said the fund initially capitalized at $15,000, is designed to "discover, record, tabulate, comment upon, and illustrate all facets of Ohio local history."

Frohman, an author of Erie County histories, is concerned about the loss of valuable historical information which, although recorded by amateur historians, can be of great value after passage of time for the professional researcher.

Haitian Exile Guerrilla Camp Found In Florida Swamps

KEY WEST, Fla. (AP) — Following a dead man's trail, officers slogged deep into the Everglades Wednesday and arrested 12 heavily armed men they say were training at a jungle camp for an invasion of Haiti.

The men dressed in camouflage uniforms included 10 Haitian exiles and two men identified as Americans in charge of the camp.

Unofficial sources said the Americans were former members of the Green Berets—the Army's Special Forces trained to aid guerrillas.

Monroe County Sheriff Robert Brown said the raiding party of deputies was alerted to the existence of the camp some 50 miles into the swamp by Florida Highway Patrol troopers.

A patrol spokesman said troopers answering a telephoned report of shooting in the area stopped a car carrying a wounded man. Whoever was with the wounded man apparently told the officers about the camp, said the spokesman.

Gerald D. Baker, who had been shot in the chest, was dead on arrival at a Miami hospital. "He apparently was shot during a training maneuver in which live ammunition was used," Brown said.

However, Eugene L. Maximilian, Haitian consul general in Miami, said he had learned that Baker was shot after a falling out among the trainees.

Brown said the former Green Berets were identified as Edward Koldy, 33, and William J. Dempsey, 26. Although both were listed as Americans, Maximilian said Dempsey was a Canadian citizen.

The occupants of the jungle camp surrendered without firing a shot.

Deputies then confiscated 16 rifles, a similar number of .45-caliber pistols and knives as well as walkie-talkies and camping gear.

County Income Tax Proposal Being Drafted
CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — State Finance Director Howard L. Collier says Gov. James A. Rhodes' proposal to permit counties to levy income taxes may go to the legislature next week.

Collier said the proposed legislation "has been drafted and is in the final process of being prepared for introduction."

Collier told members of the Greater Cleveland chapter of the American Society for Public Administration the Rhodes administration is not in favor of limiting the amount of income tax counties could levy but indicated such a lid might be necessary to "get the votes to pass it."

He said the final result probably would be a tax of up to 2 per cent. At least half the money would go for education, he said.

names battle dead during the first two weeks of the offensive to 780 government troops and 10,876 of the enemy.

Military analysts, noting the drop in casualties, said that enemy attacks last week declined from the level of the first seven days of the offensive. They said, however, that the Communist command apparently was regrouping and resupplying its units in preparation for a new phase of the offensive.

The U.S. Command also announced 1,694 Americans were wounded last week, compared with 2,593 the previous week. South Vietnamese wounded totaled 1,058, down from 2,072 the week before. Another 27 South Vietnamese were listed as missing in action last week.

The weekly summary raised American casualties in Vietnam since Jan. 1, 1961, to 32,712 killed in action, 206,182 wounded and 1,321 missing or captured. The U.S. Command said at least 461,256 Viet Cong and North Vietnamese have been killed in those eight years.

Meanwhile, the Viet Cong stepped up its offensive again today, pummeling about 40 military bases and towns with mortars and rockets during the night.

Hugh Dresbach Wins District SCS Award

Hugh Dresbach, a student from Logan Elm High School, won the Pickaway Soil and Water Conservation District's science contest Thursday.

Dresbach's project was on water pollution. He will receive a plaque presented by the Federal Land Bank. He is eligible to enter the area contest which will be held April 17 in Washington, D. C.

Brenda Mills, also of Logan Elm, had a project on flood control entered in the contest.

Five junior high students from Pickaway Twp. entered the contest. Vanessa Mills' project on algae won the junior high competition. She will also receive a plaque.

Other junior high projects were Mark Bower, soils; Mark Phillips, conservation; Janet Wolford, farm pond; Paul Bailey, industrial wastes.

The science program sponsored by Soil and water districts throughout the state leads ultimately to a state contest at Kent State University in July with the winner receiving a $500 scholarship. Second place award in the state is a $250 scholarship.

"Everybody ought to know, everybody ought to know about Jesus" these are the words that the Mt. Pleasant Church's choir sings each night to open the 7:30 p.m. evangelistic services being held this week. The church is located on Route 138 close to Kinderhook and if you want to hear a truly fine service, a minister (Rev. H. M. Comas, Russell, Ky.) who leaves no doubt about his convictions then plan to attend.

Special music, (as well as good rousing congregational numbers), is planned for each evening. Sunday night Rev. Foster Jenne, the pastor, sang a solo number. Monday night was Norma Schleich Graham, a member of Community United Methodist (and of interest to local folks—she is the daughter of our late beloved Bessie Schleich Andrews); Tuesday night Emmetts Chapel will provide the special number; Wednesday will be Charlotte Hill of the Mill St. Baptist Church; Thursday — Springbank Methodist — Oscar Reynolds, and Anna Lee Fellenstein; Friday will be Williamsport sixth grader, Gail Underwood; Saturday Mt. Pleasant's own Dorsey Bumgarner; Sunday, Norma Graham will return. Each and everyone of these are marvelous singers and it is pure joy to hear them. At Monday night's service it was "Pack A Pew" with several members of the church serving as pew captains — The Marvon Mowery's had 16 in their pew; Roy Rittingers had 10 (these were the 3 highest). Other captains had folks in their pews, too. Why not come on out and not only pack a pew but pack the church with wall to wall people?

Open House

While on the subject of Church I might mention my home church — Williamsport Methodist is planning a clean up day. Saturday, March 29 and all persons welcome — preferably with bucket, scrub brush, old rags etc. etc. The clean up is to prepare for the open house to be held Sunday, March 30 and of course the open house is for one and all to view the positively beautiful remodeling job just recently completed.

Baptism

We may as well continue with our church news and write about Tracey Lynne Wisecup, the adorable 3½ months old daughter, of Gary and Sandy Clark Wisecup who was baptized during church services Sunday morning by our pastor, Rev. Ed Linville with godfather Mike Clark and godmother Mrs. Steve Fullen accepting their responsibilities with the parents as the Sacrament of Baptism was administered.

It may not be exactly proper at this point but I think my readers would like to know little Tracey wore a soft blue velvet dress with white lace collar, white lace "tights" and white satin one strap shoes that buttoned. Members of the family gathered at the Wisecup home after services for a Sunday dinner and they were: great-grandmothers (maternal) Mrs. Hazel Clark, Mrs. C. C. Allen; grandparents Mr. and Mrs. Orin Wisecup, of New Holland; Mr. and Mrs. Jack Clark; Aunts Linda Wisecup (home from Ohio U.) Dee Anne Clark; Uncles Mark and Mike Clark (Mike was home from Ohio Northern) Uncle Darrell and Aunt Glenna Wisecup and cousin Drew; Mrs. Steve Fullen, Jeff and Tami and Tracey's 5 year old brother Brian.

Welcome Home

As welcome as sweet springtime itself are Walter and Elsie Wright who returned home Monday evening after spending the past two months or so at Largo, Florida. They have an Air Stream Trailer and were based at a trailer court there. On Feb. 27 they pulled up stakes and drove over to Clermont where they again stayed at a trailer park while they spent a week visiting with cousins Mr. and Mrs. Harold Helwagen. They left there last Friday and taking freeway 75 which is nearly completed they made their way home via Georgia, Tennessee, Kentucky. That Elsie is one of the most adept people with her hands I know and sure enough she has come home with lots of new craft ideas. And not only that but lo! and behold she has a new three wheeler bicycle so don't be too surprised to see a whole new fad develop here in town (frankly I'd love to have one).

Basketball

Hopefully in a month or two the terribly disappointed Westfall fans will recover from the loss of their recent game, but I have always said win or lose, how the game was played counts and goodness knows our boys played their hearts out and played a truly fine game. At our home the game has been played and re-played as it has in many homes. Friday night papa Bill, Marc and Becki will travel to Athens for the regionals. Papa Bill has a special interest in the Zaac Trace vs Frontier game since he spent his high school days in the hallowed halls of Centralia and now that they are merged with Kingston to become Z.T. he feels a certain affinity. Hope you make it Z.T. Yea! We have some devoted fans in our community and one in particular was so excited about attending the game and getting a good seat last Friday night that he jumped in his car, threw it into reverse, stepped on the gas and ka-boom, kee-rash went the garage door he had forgotten to open. Come to think of it I never did find out if Tommy Carter made it to the game. Not knocking out garage doors but surely setting some kind of record as basketball fans just must be Frank and Mary Clark since they attended a game every day (or night) last week.

Progress Report

Tiny Beth Cook whose parents are Don Jr. and Peggy Cook now weighs all of 4 pounds 7 ounces and is scheduled to be released this weekend from Mt. Carmel Hospital.

Sad News

With the good news to report is a note of sad news and it grieves us to tell you our good friend Iris (Mrs. John) Martindill passed away Monday afternoon. We mourn the loss of this mighty good woman. Also, Mrs. Florence West was informed over the weekend her nephew Maynard McAllister of New York had died suddenly. We extend our sympathy to Mrs. West who at the age of 93 bears the burden of the loss of another member of her family.

Cherub Choir

While on church news I should have included that the Cherub Choir (comprised of 31 students first grade thru fourth grade) provided special music Sunday morning under the direction of Mrs. Glen (Beverly) Whitten, Jr. and Mrs. David (Nancy) Snyder. Singing solo parts were Eddie Linville, J. R. Hamman, Jerri Kaiser and Kelly McCafferty and since Kelly's daddy Mike had to be at work at DuPont the song was taped so he could hear it later.

This 'n That

Mrs. Wilson (Marcella) Puckett is trying to find a walking cane for her grandmother, Mrs. Josie Gulick since she fell this winter and has difficulty in getting around now. If you have one or know of one available I know Marcella would be most grateful.

Mrs. Charles (Alice) Schleich, a patient in Room 702 Riverside Methodist Hospital, Cols. underwent emergency surgery last week and after several days of deep concern, her daughter Mary Alice Greenwood and grandsons Don and Ron Greenwood report she is somewhat better.

Harry Arledge and family of Delaware visited Sunday with dad and mom Jack and Gladys Arledge.

Child Study League members will entertain their husbands with dinner at the Terrace Lounge, Washington C. H. at 7:00 p.m. Sat. night. Reservations are to be placed with Sandy Wisecup 474-8209.

Enjoying a pleasant evening Sunday visiting with their grandchildren J. R., R.V. and Cindy Hamman were Mr. and Mrs. Ray Myers of Harrisburg when they motored down here to the home of daughter Jeanine and her husband Jim.

Don't forget the P.T.A. Talent Show in the Williamsport School Auditorium, March 24.

Lawrence Carle flew down to Miami, Fla. last Friday and accompanied his son David home by car — arriving here Saturday (that's what you call a down and back) Dave, age 20, is on leave of absence, as an air-craft mechanic with Eastern Air Line (their main base is Miami) for the next four years while he is in the air force. He goes back to Miami on the 13th and departs the next day for Lackland A.F.B. Mama Dorothy is happy to have him home these few days. Dave received his schooling for his position with Eastern at the Pittsburgh Institute of Aeronautics Pittsburgh, Pa.

Flying in last Wednesday from Las Vegas were David and Marabel Drummond. They had won the trip through a spring sales promotional of Bolens tractors and equipment. They were guests at the Sahara Hotel (Las Vegas' largest) and attended several shows notably Don Rickles and Bobby Vinton at the Dunes they saw the Casino de Paris (and one or two of the risque type that needn't be mentioned in a family newspaper). Over a thousand dealers and their wives attended.

The Drummonds visited the other Thursday with Doyen and Kathleen Bode and gathered up the belongings of baby Joy who stayed with her grandparents while her parents were away. Later in the week David, Marabel, Connie, Sandee and Joy visited with the Mile Drummonds and the Roger Drummond family.

Miss Georgia London of Columbus spent the weekend with her mother Mrs. Dick (Kate) Leach, Mr. Leach and her sister Ettia Jo Sollars.

Ginger Smalley bride-elect of Robert Stant was honored guest when Bob's aunt, Mrs. Charles (Esther) Picklesimer and cousins, Mrs. Dave (Janet) Lovett and Mrs. Brad (Donna) Thompson entertained with a bridal shower in the Prairie Lanes Party Room Saturday night. The guest list was comprised of the groom's relatives in the paternal and maternal sides of the house. He is a son of Shirley and Helen Miller Stant of Whistler and Ginger is the daughter of Mrs. Joseph Smalley. The wedding will be March 30 and among the attendants will be Faith Ann (Little Charley) Picklesimer and Minday Markel who will have the rice baskets (these contain the small bags of rice for the guests to toss).

A surprise birthday party was arranged for Steve Fullen by his wife Onda last Sunday evening. Guests were mainly friends who belong to the same horse riding club. From Stoutsville came Paul and Rae Chaffin and Kathy, Linda and Mike Kempton and Bob Fontana; down from Ashville were Dick and Darlene Jackson and their Rhonda and Theresa; over from Circleville — Earl and Odra Wallace and Jani, Jake Hedges drove in from Laurelville, Miss Sue Orr was here from Cols. and from Williamsport Bob and Linda Diltz and Julie and Richard Reisinger. Jeff and Tami Fullen also enjoyed daddy's party.

Janie Hamman (Mrs. George III) who celebrated her birthday on March 4 was honored guest when her parents, the Willard Peterson's of Frankfort entertained with dinner that evening.

Also present were husband George and sons Andy and Bill. On the prior weekend another son, Tom, was home from get together celebrated Janie's Marietta College and a family and nephew Carl Hamman's (same birth date). Joining in were the Willard Petersons, George Jr., and Frances Hamman, of Williamsport Pike, Mrs. Robert (Jo) Hamman (Carl's mom) and his sisters Jenny and Peggy of Clarksburg. These festivities took place at the George Hamman III home on Judas Rd.

of the list is our own Mr. William (Bill) Miner who was born Sept. 29, 1884, a son of John Wesley and Izora Junk Miner. He lived many years in the Frankfort-Clarksburg area with his family — (wife Maxine Edith Brown who he married in 1904) and children, Betty (Mrs. Ed Heath) Lucy (Mrs. Miller Fissell) both of Circleville, Mary (Mrs. Harold Shimmel) of Newark, John at home and Wayne and Lyle (both now deceased). Known far and wide as a breeder of outstanding purebred Black Angus cattle and also for the fine horses he kept in his stable, Mr. Miner truly liked caring for his livestock. As well as cattle and horses, Mr. Miner, at one time also was noted for the fine "porkers" he sent to market. One of the last farms he tilled the soil was near Circleville and known as the A.E. Fissell farm. Moving to the village of Williamsport he became associated with the Williamsport school where it can safely be said he became the good friend and well loved figure of hundreds of students and their parents. Known as "Grandpa" to most of them he is actual grandfather to several grandchildren, one of whom, Tom, he reared from a small child to the fine young man he is today and the father of one of the seven great-grandchildren. Tom and the school children helped fill the void left with the death of his wife in 1953.

In ill health for the past several months and now a patient at Monterey Nursing Inn, Room S16, Grove City, it goes without saying he is surely and sorely missed from the Williamsport scene. His daughter Lucy wishes to thank the many folks who have sent cards, flowers and other remembrances to him and when she visited him Monday he was much better so we all hope to have him home soon.

Williamsport News

"Everybody ought to know, everybody ought to know about Jesus" these are the words that the Mt. Pleasant Church's choir sings each night to open the 7:30 p.m. evangelistic services being held this week. The church is located on Route 138, close to Kinderhook and if you want to hear a truly fine service, a minister (Rev. H. McComas, Russell, Ky.) who leaves no doubt about his convictions then plan to attend.

Special music, (as well as good rousing congregational numbers), is planned for each evening. Sunday night Rev. Foster Jenne, the pastor, sang a solo number, Monday night was Norma Schleich Graham, a member of Community United Methodist (and of interest to local folks—she is the daughter of our late beloved Bessie Schleich Andrews); Tuesday night Emmett's Chapel will provide the special number; Wednesday will be Charlotte Hill of the Mill St. Baptist Church; Thursday — Springbank Methodist — Oscar Reynolds, and Anna Lee Fellenstein; Friday will be Williamsport sixth grader, Gail Underwood; Saturday Mt. Pleasant's own Dorsey Bumgarner; Sunday, Norma Graham will return. Each and everyone of these are marvelous singers and it is pure joy to hear them. At Monday night's service it was "Pack A Pew" with several members of the church serving as pew captains — The Marvon Mowery's had 16 in their pew; Roy Rittgers had 10 (these were the 3 highest). Other captains had folks in their pews, too. Why not come on out and not only pack a pew but pack the church with wall to wall people?

Open House

While on the subject of Church I might mention my home church — Williamsport Methodist is planning a clean up day, Saturday, March 29 and all persons welcome — preferably with bucket, scrub brush, old rags etc. etc. The clean up is to prepare for the open house to be held Sunday, March 30 and of course the open house is for one and all to view the positively beautiful remodeling job just recently completed.

Baptism

We may as well continue with our church news and write about Tracey Lynne Wisecup, the adorable 3½ months old daughter, of Gary and Sandy Clark Wisecup who was baptized during church services Sunday morning by our pastor, Rev. Ed Linville with godfather Mike Clark and godmother Mrs. Steve Fullen accepting their responsibilities with the parents as the Sacrament of Baptism was administered.

It may not be exactly proper at this point but I think my readers would like to know little Tracey wore a soft blue velvet dress with white lace collar, white lace "tights" and white satin one strap shoes that buttoned. Members of the family gathered at the Wisecup home after services for a Sunday dinner and they were: great-grandmothers (maternal) Mrs. Hazel Clark, Mrs. C. C. Allen; grandparents Mr. and Mrs. Orin Wisecup, of New Holland; Mr. and Mrs. Jack Clark; Aunts Linda Wisecup (home from Ohio U.) Dee Anne Clark; Uncles Mark and Mike Clark (Mike was home from Ohio Northern) Uncle Darrell and Aunt Glenna Wisecup and cousin Drew; Mrs. Steve Fullen, Jeff and Tami and Tracey's 5 year old brother Brian.

Welcome Home

As welcome as sweet springtime itself are Walter and Elsie Wright who returned home Monday evening after spending the past two months or so at Largo, Florida. They have an Air Stream Trailer and were based at a trailer court there. On Feb. 27 they pulled up stakes and drove over to Clermont where they again stayed at a trailer park while they spent a week visiting with cousins Mr. and Mrs. Harold Helwage. They left there last Friday and taking freeway 75 which is nearly completed they made their way home via Georgia, Tennessee, Kentucky. That Elsie is one of the most adept people with her hands I know and sure enough she has come home with lots of new craft ideas. And not only that but lo! and behold she has a new three wheeler bicycle so don't be too surprised to see a whole new fad develop here in town (frankly I'd love to have one).

Basketball

Hopefully in a month or two the terribly disappointed Westfall fans will recover from the loss of their recent game. But I have always said win or lose, how the game was played counts and goodness knows our boys played their hearts out and played a truly fine game. At our home the game has been played and re-played as it has in many homes. Friday night papa Bill, Marc and Becki will travel to Athens for the regionals. Papa Bill has a special interest in the Zane Trace vs Frontier game since he spent his high school days in the hallowed halls of Centralia and now that they are merged with Kingston to become Z.T. he feels a certain affinity. Hope you make it Z.T. Yea! We have some devoted fans in our community and one in particular was so excited about attending the game and getting a good seat last Friday night that he jumped in his car, threw it into reverse, stepped on the gas and ka-boom, kee-rash went the garage door he had forgotten to open. Come to think of it I never did find out if Tommy Carter made it to the game. Not knocking out garage doors but surely setting some kind of record as basketball fans just must be Frank and Mary Clark since they attended a game every day (or night) last week.

Fares Up, Trains Down

Long haul passenger service? "We think it's dead. We just can't compete with the airlines," says Penn Central president Stuart T. Saunders. Two actions of the Interstate Commerce Commission and Penn Central go far toward proving him right.

First, the commission allowed Penn Central to discontinue two more long-haul trains, both between New York and St. Louis. The ICC had little choice under present law, which obliged it to act on Penn Central's claim the two trains lost more than $1.7 million last year.

But the commission followed this up by granting Penn Central a flat 10 percent increase in all long-haul passenger rates, thus stimulating the cycle of fewer passengers and fewer trains for them to ride.

ICC Chairman Tierney warned last July that unless Congress changed the law allowing railroads almost instant relief from money-losing trains, passenger service would soon disappear.

Mr. Tierney wants ICC empowered to keep trains running until full surveys into costs, revenues and service provided can be made. With the passenger-train death cycle accelerating, Mr. Tierney's plea becomes no less urgent.

The Business World

By LISA CRONIN
(For John Cuniff)

NEW YORK (AP) — Just about everyone in government and industry would like to see the end of controls on foreign direct investment, but few can agree on when or by how much the controls can be dismantled.

The House subcommittee on Foreign Economic Policy will begin hearings in a few weeks on a resolution introduced by Rep. John V. Tunney, D-Calif., urging abolition of the controls.

Business leaders are expected to argue that the limits on capital spending of American businesses abroad hurt rather than help our balance of payments.

"Most everyone has come around to the idea that these controls have got to go and now it's just a matter of time," said Judd Polk, director of program and studies for the U.S. Council of the International Chamber of Commerce.

Voluntary limits on direct foreign investment have been in effect since 1965, but in January 1968, President Johnson established a set of mandatory controls, attempting to bolster the U.S. balance of payments position by limiting the amount of money invested overseas.

Mandatory controls were also intended as a psychological move, to prove to the rest of the world that Americans were willing to take strong action to improve the balance of payments.

Commerce Secretary Maurice H. Stans has promised that the Nixon administration is moving toward exempting "many hundreds" of small companies from the controls.

Stans has also promised some form of relief for large corporations.

Those who urge caution in removing controls say that pentup demand for capital funds abroad would open a floodgate for American investment in the U.S. balance of payments position.

Proponents of controls also urge that payback on U.S. investment abroad is slow, that production abroad competes with exports and also involves huge exports of technology that weakens America's competitive lead.

Try and Stop Me

By BENNETT CERF

GEORGE AXELROD, ace scenarist and author of "The Seven Year Itch," was idling down Sunset Boulevard in his shiny new convertible when a reckless truck driver crashed into him and reduced his new car to an irreparable wreck. Stunned but undefeated, Axelrod rallied to observe, "Be it ever so crumpled, there's no plate like chrome!"

In Leo Rosten's wildly successful "The Joys of Yiddish," he tells of a Mr. Sokoloff, who had been dining regularly at a certain restaurant on Second Avenue, beginning each meal with a dish of chicken soup. One night Mr. Sokoloff called out to his waiter, "Come back here and taste this soup." "After twenty years," demurred the waiter, "you question the perfection of our wonderful chicken soup?" "Come back and TASTE it," repeated Mr. Sokoloff. "All right, all right," conceded the waiter. "I'll taste it—but where's the spoon?" "Aha!" cried Mr. Sokoloff.

Speaking Of Your Health

By Lester L. Coleman, M.D.

My husband has just been told that he has some form of arthritis. It was suggested that he would feel better in a warm climate and we are willing to make such a move. Can you suggest a particular part of the United States where a person with arthritis would feel better?

Mrs. D. H., Massachusetts
Dear Mrs. H.: There is no question about the fact that patients with arthritis are affected by changes in the weather, variations in humidity and temperature and sudden changes in barometric pressure. Almost everyone has known someone who says "I can feel it in my bones and know when it will rain twenty-four hours before it does."

I am certain your doctor has discussed the form of arthritis your husband has and made recommendations for treatment in the climate you live in. It may very well be that this treatment, continued in a warmer climate, would be even more beneficial.

The chamber of commerce of every city in the Southwest would, I am sure, be certain that their climate is the best anywhere in America. This may well be, but I certainly would not base the destiny of your family, your husband's job and your children's schooling on the enthusiasm of a public relations official for a sun-drenched climate. I have found it very sad when there is such an upheaval in the family structure only to find that living in a new community is unbearable from the social, financial and medical point of view. May I suggest, therefore, that you take a trial period in a warm, dry climate and if, after six months, all the medical and social advantages are really found, then, and only then, should you make the permanent move. Obviously, geography is not the only answer to arthritis. It must be combined with some of the wonderful drugs that are now available.

Is tuberculosis a disease which has been eradicated by modern antibiotics? We don't seem to hear as much about it as we did when I was a child.

Mr. E. C., Virginia
Dear Mr. C.: Unfortunately, it is a misconception to believe that tuberculosis no longer exists. It is still a very active disease, especially in underprivileged parts of this country. Malnutrition, overcrowding in unsanitary housing and poor medical care are responsible for the fact that more than 50,000 new cases of tuberculosis are reported yearly.

Regular chest examinations and X-rays of the chest uncover early cases of tuberculosis and permit intensive treatment with modern medicines and antibiotics. Let me repeat that tuberculosis is still a very dangerous disease and must be flushed out of hiding to be cured. Any chronic cough that does not respond to simple medication must be suspect and deserves the health advantage of an excellent and complete medical examination.

Continuing Flap Over ABM

By JOHN CHAMBERLAIN
WASHINGTON — An artist's conception of an anti-ballistic missile being fired from a small specialized ship has been circulating around the old General Grant State Department building that now houses President Nixon's intellectual minions. Apparently the conception mirrors something that is feasible, although what the cost of a fleet of "ABM ships" might be, or whether they would offer a better anti-missile defense than the currently planned land-based Sentinel deployment, is something that has yet to be publicly explored. Politically, a seaborne ABM would derail the whipped-up campaign, now manifesting itself in a deluge of letters to Congressmen, against putting ABM site complexes close to such cities as Boston and Chicago. There's nothing like a threat to real estate values to provoke protest. But the moving spirits in the anti-ABM lobby would surely be back in force with other objections to support their fear that work on an ABM system would especially provoke the Russians and thus imperil the chances for an effective arms limitation conference.

What impresses a visitor to Washington about the whole anti-ABM crusade is its intellectual frivolity. Deployment of the ABM Sentinel system, it is said, would take money away from urban rehabilitation. That could be true, but what good would it do the present slum dwellers if their re-planned and rebuilt cities were destroyed in an atomic attack on an undefended urban complex? A strangely secondary argument against the ABM is that it won't work. This is asserted heatedly by people who cannot tell you the difference between integral and differential calculus, and who would be at a total loss to account for Moscow's belief in its own so-called GALOSH and Tallinn missile defense systems.

Personally, I don't know any more than the next layman about whether the Soviets have an effective ABM, or whether it is indeed possible for anyone to come up with a defense against a massive missile attack. But the point is that, when Robert McNamara, and later Clark Clifford, held the office of Secretary of Defense, pro-

ABM experts were not allowed to carry their case to the public. Far from dominating the media, the so-called military-industrial complex has been thoroughly muzzled.

What sticks in my mind is the testimony of Sam Shafer, an ex-Marine who writes on politics for Newsweek magazine. Sam made a sentimental journey recently to the island of Tarawa to help celebrate the anniversary of its recapture in World War II from the Japanese. On his way to Tarawa his plane put down in Kwajalein for refueling. Kwajalein is a more or less top secret place where offensive and defensive rocket systems are tested and where missiles are recovered.

It was not part of Shafer's anniversary pilgrimage or assignment to do anything about the anti-ballistic missile. But officers at Kwajalein volunteered the information that the Sentinel had been tested and really was effective. Its complex computer and memory bank operation was, so they said, capable of distinguishing between decoys and the real McCoy's, and could handle the interception of multiple as well as single warheads. The officers wanted to know why newsmen and Congressional representatives weren't allowed to come to Kwajalein for a demonstration.

A demonstration, of course, is the last thing the anti-ABM lobby wants. More pertinent to its own campaign is a picture of Senator Kennedy or Senator McGovern standing by a threatened piece of suburban real estate whose owners feel that "out of sight, out of mind" is a safe enough defense against a missile attack from thousands of miles away.

The campaign against deployment of the Sentinel is at full throttle, and will certainly continue even if Richard Nixon, the Armed Services Committee and the Atomic Energy Committee concur in telling Secretary of Defense Laird to go ahead preparing Sentinel sites at some distance from the big suburban areas.

But the original argument, advanced by John F. Kennedy's scientific adviser, Dr. Jerome B. Wiesner, some years ago — that we shouldn't build an anti-ballistic system lest we provoke the Soviets to go ahead with one of their own — no longer holds water.

The Soviets already have deployed ABM rings to protect vital areas, and are experimenting with new types of defense. It is Moscow, not Washington, that has fractured the precarious balance of terror. It we don't reply in kind, thus restoring the balance, we won't have any political counter to use in our attempt to bring about a mutual cutback in armaments that would save money safely for rehabilitating those slums.

Oscar Nominations

AP Television-Movie Writer
By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — With studied solemnity, the voters of the Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences file into the Academy theater daily and nightly to view the candidates for the 41st annual awards.

Some Academy members gorge themselves on four long movies in an afternoon and evening, trying to catch up on the year's product. There is no way to gauge how the voters feel, because they never applaud and seldom laugh at the films they see.

The results of their viewing won't be known until the Price, Waterhouse man hands over the sealed envelopes on the stage of the Los Angeles Music Center on the evening of April 14.

All signs point to an air of unpredictability. The nominations portended that. Hollywood is still buzzing with questions about unexpected results of the nominations. Among them:

Why wasn't Mia Farrow nominated as best actress for "Rosemary's Baby"? (Does Frank Sinatra have that many friends among the voters?)

If "Rachel, Rachel" won nominations as best picture and for Joanne Woodward as best actress, why was Paul Newman overlooked for best director?

Why did the voters give "Funny Girl" eight nominations but none for its director, William Wyler? (Or should Barbra Streisand have been listed as co-director?)

How could Jack Albertson be listed for best supporting actor when he played the most important male role in three-character "The Subject Was Roses"?

How could the voters have overlooked Walter Matthau's classic performance in "The Odd Couple"? (Did Alan Bates have a better press campaign for "The Fixer"?)

Didn't Lynn Carlin play the lead in "Faces" (Of course she did, but she is up for best supporting actress.)

Why did "Star!" win seven nominations, but not one in a major category? (If the parts were so outstanding, why wasn't the whole?)

How could the voters give four nominations to "Romeo and Juliet," including best picture and best direction, then ignore the author (Couldn't he afford a press agent?)

50th Anniversary Easter Seal Stamp To Be Issued

A stamp encouraging the rehabilitation of crippled children and adults will be issued this fall to coincide with the observance of the 50th anniversary of the Easter Seal movement. Richard Plum, Pickaway County Easter Seal campaign chairman, announced today.

The post office department will offer the stamp for sale Nov. 20, the opening day of the National Easter Seal Society's golden anniversary convention in Columbus.

In announcing the issuance of the commemorative stamp, Plum noted that the Easter Seal movement had its beginning in Elyria, Ohio, with the formation of the Ohio Society for Crippled Children in 1919.

Elyria businessman, Edgar F. Allen, founder of the Ohio Society and pioneer in the crippled child movement, went on to found the National Society two years later.

Plum stated that the Pickaway County Society operates a number of programs for the crippled children and adults in the community. He also noted that total receipts for the 1968 Campaign was $5,322.50 and total expenditures of $4,444.44.

Plum stated that these voluntary contributions enabled the society to purchase 11 pairs of Special Orthopedic shoes, loan equipment (including an ultra-sonic nebulizer and a wheel chair), paid for equipment repair, assisted with purchase of an audiometer for use at the Pickaway County Speech and Hearing Clinic, rebuilt one plastic eye, provided care and treatment and referral service, paid clinic fees, provided transportation to clinics, supplied medication, helped to support the Epilepsy Clinic, provided services at the Pickaway County Speech and Hearing Clinic, made loan of wheel chairs, walkers and crutches, provided two weeks of summer camp for two youths and one adult at Camp Pitinger (a special camp for the handicapped), gave assistance to nearly 300 children and adults in the community.

He also pointed out that 74 per cent of the gross receipts stay in Circleville and Pickaway County.

Plum stated that he is looking forward to more handicapped children and adults being rehabilitated and that the local Society is counting on the continued support of Pickaway County residents, so these year around services may be supplied in our community.

Plum urges those who have not received Easter Seals in the mail, and are desirous of receiving them to contact Mrs. Elliott Mason, society president, at 474-5253 or Mrs. M. C. Kirkwood, executive secretary, at 474-3633. Contributions may be made to Easter Seals, Post Office Box 243, Circleville.

Brown Says High Penalties Face Young Narcotic Users

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Most Ohio young people who experiment with drugs don't realize the harsh penalties they face if caught, Atty. Gen. Paul W. Brown said Wednesday.

Brown urged all parents to acquaint their children with the rigid legal consequences for drugs and narcotics violations.

The attorney general said surveys he is conducting show that drug experimentation by some Ohio students is moving into a "multiple abuse" stage.

He said young people use hallucinogens like LSD and then take tranquilizers to halt the effects of a "bad trip."

Many of these youngsters have no intention of becoming addicted but still want to experiment, Brown said. "Scare tactics" in drug education programs have been largely ineffective, he said, adding that one reason may be ignorance of the legal consequences of drug use.

Brown reviewed the penalties: —For possession for sale of narcotic drugs, ten to 20 years imprisonment for the first offense.

—Selling narcotic drugs, 20 to 40 years imprisonment for any offense.

—Purchase, use or possession of hallucinogens, up to $1,000 fine or one year imprisonment or both for the first offense.

—Manufacturing or dispensing LSD or permitting such activity on one's property, a fine of up to $10,000 and two to 25 years imprisonment.

—To attempt to induce any person, including a minor, to use hallucinogens, ten to 25 years imprisonment for the first offense.

—Unlawfully dispensing or administering any hallucinogen to a minor, 30 years to life imprisonment.

Apollo 9 Flight Chalks Up Bonuses For Space Agency

SPACE CENTER, Houston (AP) — Apollo 9 has not only put America squarely on course toward a July lunar landing, but chalked up a bundle of bonuses that will make flights to the moon and beyond easier and safer.

With the exception of testing some communications techniques that may be used in future trips to the moon, "all mission objectives have been accomplished," said flight director Eugene F. Kranz.

In addition, the astronauts discovered a fuel-saving way to sight navigation landmarks, performed an unscheduled satellite-tracking experiment that could be useful in rescuing men aboard a disabled spaceship, and got new engineering data for planning future missions.

"Across the board, we've had a good mission," Kranz told a news conference as Apollo 9 circled the globe on its final orbits before today's re-entry with its crew of three.

Their risky 10-day journey flight-qualified the last piece of hardware needed to land Americans on the moon, the spidery lunar module (LEM) that will shuttle spacemen from a command ship to the moon's surface.

Enough questions remain—particularly about navigating around the moon—that the space agency is expected to fly one more mission before attempting a lunar landing. The next flight, scheduled to blast off May 17, will call for three Apollo 10 astronauts to circle the moon for 63 hours, sources said.

On that schedule, the landing mission would come in mid-July.

Overshadowed by Apollo 9's feat of qualifying the LEM were many less dramatic but important accomplishments, including:

—Proving the space suit with oxygen-filled backpack to be worn by astronauts walking on the moon is safe and comfortable. Russell L. Schweickart tested the entire lunar landing outfit during his 38-minute space walk outside the LEM.

—Operating for the first time the type of television camera to be used on a lunar landing. TV cameras carried on previous Apollo flights were not designed to withstand high temperatures in sunlight outside a moonship.

—Blazing the trail for a new unmanned satellite program aimed at locating unseen sources of minerals and food supplies on earth. Unmanned satellites carrying cameras similar to Apollo 9's are to be orbited beginning in 1971. Film returned by Apollo 9 will show whether development plans need to be altered.

—Tracking an old unmanned satellite named Pegasus and the discarded LEM, proving a disabled craft can under certain conditions be seen hundreds of miles away. This information will be useful if one spaceship has to rescue another.

The fuel-saving method of tracking navigation landmarks involved rolling the spacecraft slowly as the astronauts passed over a target, rather than using jerky motor firings.

The astronauts also tested backup navigation techniques, including sightings on planets, and rehearsed methods of rolling their spaceship to distribute outside sun heat more evenly as will be done en route to the moon.

OHIO WEATHER SUMMARY
COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Official Weather Bureau summary for Ohio:

It was clear and cold across Ohio during the night.

By daybreak, temperatures had dropped well into the teens.

Increasing cloudiness is expected across northern Ohio tonight and Friday while skies elsewhere in the state will be clear.

A slow rise in temperatures is expected during the next couple of days in all parts of the state, but readings likely are to remain a little below normal.

—FORECASTS—

OHIO — Fair tonight. Not quite as cold central and south. Lows in the 20s except locally upper teens north. Fair Friday with partly cloudy south and not much temperature change.

NORTHWEST AND NORTHEAST OHIO — Fair and cool again tonight. Lows in the upper teens and low 20s. Partly cloudy with little temperature change Friday. Highs in the 30s. Outlook for Saturday: little change.

CENTRAL AND EAST CENTRAL OHIO — Fair and not quite as cold tonight. Lows in the mid and low 20s. Fair Friday with little temperature change. Highs in the upper 30s and low 40s. Outlook for Saturday: partly cloudy with little temperature change.

SOUTHWEST AND SOUTHEAST OHIO — Fair and not quite as cold tonight. Lows in the mid and low 20s. Fair Friday with little temperature change. Highs mostly in the lower 40s. Outlook for Saturday: little change.

Ohio Unemployment Lowest In 8 Years

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Ohio's unemployment rate last year was the lowest of the eight years such records have been kept, according to Willard P. Dudley, administrator of the Ohio Bureau of Employment Services.

The unemployment figure of 2.9 per cent in 1968 compared with the national employment rate of 3.6 per cent, Dudley said.

John Dunlap Addresses Pickaway Garden Club

"Facts and Figures Concerning Deercreek Dam" was the topic of John H. Dunlap Jr., guest speaker for the Annual Guest Day Dinner of Pickaway County Garden Club Tuesday evening at the Wardell Party Home.

The tables were decorated with arrangements of spring flowers and pussy willow branches. The floral centerpiece on the speaker's table, arranged by Mrs. Darrell Hatfield, was presented to Mrs. Dunlap.

Mrs. James Irwin, president, welcomed the members and guests. Mr. Dunlap was introduced by the program chairman, Mrs. Willson Leist. Mr. Dunlap began his talk with an old proverb applicable to the garden club which said, "If you have only a small amount of money, buy a loaf of bread and a flower. The bread will give you life and the flower will give you a reason for living."

Henry Banyan was quoted as remarking that in the distant past the Scioto River was lined with enormous sycamore, hickory, beech and oak trees. One huge sycamore was 21 feet in diameter.

He said that Deercreek is one of the very few unpolluted streams left in Ohio. Mr. Dunlap, as chairman of the Natural Resources Commission of Ohio, is especially interested in conservation. As one of the directors of the Ohio Conservancy Board in 1938 he helped in accomplishing the passage of the national bill to build Deercreek Dam. The park covers 9,200 acres which cost $20,000,000. Boat ramps and beaches will be constructed this summer.

The lake will be open for fishing this summer as it has been stocked with 13-15 inch walleye, 10-12 inch muskies, croppies, bass, catfish and others.

There will be no restrictions on horsepower of the motors used on boats.

All necessary construction for future picnic areas, cabins, water sewage plant, parking lots, bridal paths, nature walks, wildlife areas etc. is planned. The park comprises 9,200 acres. At flood stage there would be 4,045 acres under water but the summer pool will cover 1,277 acres. At some points the depth is 93 feet.

The Dougherty cabin will be a future museum. One Indian mound which was found has not been included in the flooded area. All areas will be zoned, such as for boating, fishing or skiing.

The dam is a remarkable result of the U.S. Army Engineers' effort and knowledge.

Mr. Dunlap answered questions concerning the dam after his talk.

Chairman of the hostess committee was Mrs. Virgil Cress. She was assisted by Mrs. James Scott, Mrs. Luther Bower, Mrs. E. E. Porter, Mrs. Burl Wiggins, Mrs. Oscar Root and Mrs. Darrell Hatfield.

Door prizes were awarded to Mrs. Walter Hall, Mrs. John Stout, Mrs. Louise Bennett, Mrs. M. W. Burkhardt, Mrs. James Irwin, Mrs. Karl Seyfarth, Mrs. Willson Leist, Mrs. Theodore Huston, Willson Leist and Walter Hall.

Sorority Unit Elects Officers

Kappa Alpha Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi elected new officers when they met recently in the home of Mrs. Ronald Gaines, 220 Lewis Road.

Mrs. William Davie, president, extended a welcome to Mrs. Susan Hanks, Mrs. Pat Puse, Mrs. Connie Jackson, Mrs. Bruce Bell, Mrs. Brigitte Leinke, Mrs. Nancy Goodman and Mrs. Dan Hall, guests for the meeting.

Mrs. Ronald Patrick announced the Preferential Tea will be held 2 p.m. March 30 at Pickaway Arms. Reservations must be made no later than March 28.

Mrs. Davie announced the Beta Sigma Phi Convention will be held May 23 in Toledo. The convention theme this year is the Showboat era.

Elected were Mrs. Ronald Gaines, president; Mrs. James Buob, vice president; Mrs. Ronald Patrick, recording secretary; Mrs. John Konder, corresponding secretary, and Miss Barbara Boyd, treasurer.

Guest speakers, George Eakin and Miss Nancy Eakin, presented a talk and demonstration on wigs and hair pieces. Following the demonstration, members and guests asked Mr. Eakin questions concerning hair problems.

Refreshments were served by the hostess and Mrs. Frances Lucas to the guests and following members, Miss Barbara Boyd, Mrs. James Buob, Mrs. Duane Feldman, Mrs. Charles Jolliffe, Mrs. John Kelchner, Mrs. Richard Koch, Mrs. John Konder, Mrs. Phillip Leahy, Mrs. Ronald Patrick, Mrs. Dave Sealock, Mrs. Howard Snook and Mrs. Robert Wilkinson.

Hedges Chapel Women Hold Annual Silver Tea

Hedges Chapel Women's Society held its twenty-eighth Silver Tea recently with 200 guests in attendance.

The sanctuary was brightened with arrangements of spring flowers in the altar vases. The guests were greeted by little Miss Carol Winter and Master Johnny Schneider, dressed as Martha and George Washington and Mrs. Elaine Winter, Miss Sheryl Hines and Miss Helen Spires, dressed in colonial costumes.

Mrs. Virginia Sherertz presented the program planned by Mrs. Boyd Fosnaugh and Mrs. David Dill.

Everett Merhley played a medley based on "The Battle Hymn of The Republic." Debbie Richards, Brenda Pobst, Karen Peters and Bryon Valentine, a woodwind ensemble from Teays Valley High School, presented "American Sketch." Comments on "The Widow, Washington" were made by Mrs. Joseph Peters.

A novelty skit "The Good Old Days" was presented by the Metta-Larks quartet. They sang "Do You Remember When?" "Get Out Those Old Records" and "All Alone." Members of this group are Mrs. David Dill, Mrs. Boyd Fosnaugh, Mrs. Neil Barr and Mrs. Chester Peters.

Miss Janice Wilson played a trombone solo "Saraband" by Handel, accompanied by Mrs. Chester Peters.

A vocal trio, Lois Dill, Debbie Flowers and Jodi Deal, sang

Niagara Falls Work Slated This Spring

NIAGARA FALLS, N.Y. (AP) —It's a tough week for Americans.

First came word from Iowa that Podunk Center was up for sale.

Now it's Niagara Falls. Part of the Mecca for honeymooners is going to be turned off for eight months.

Engineers and geologists are planning to plug the portion of the Niagara River that leads to the American falls and divert the 8,900 to 10,000 cubic feet of water per second that flows endlessly toward the 133-foot precipice.

The result will leave the smaller of Niagara's two falls dry for about eight months.

The U.S. and Canadian governments are expected to spend $1.5 million in the effort, aimed at preserving the beauty of the American falls.

While the water is diverted to the Canadian or Horseshoe Falls, engineers and geologists will inspect the American precipice and rock face for fissures that may cause more erosion.

The base is already crowded with huge rocks eroded by the force of the river.

The project, envisioned by the International Joint Commission as a first step in a larger, later remedial effort, was first scheduled for 1968. But the Army Corps of Engineers found the cost would outstrip the original allocation of funds.

Johnson Circle Meets With Magill Circle

Johnson Circle of the Community United Methodist Church met Monday evening at the church as guests of the Magill Circle.

Mrs. Margaret Johnson, chairman, presided over the business session. She asked for volunteers for a project sponsored by the circles of the church as a money raising plan. A bean soup sale will be held by the Hamilton - Marshall Circle on March 18. Local church activities committee are to meet March 31. The General Society for all church women will be held on April 2.

Mrs. James Shank invited the group to her home for the April meeting. Mrs. Victor Ralston will be in charge of the program.

Mrs. Shank presented devotions for both groups.

An eight-ounce package of dried pulled figs will make from 1 to 1 1/2 cups cut up.

For the program Mrs. Paul Wachs presented a book review of "Christy" by Catherine Marshall.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Lucy Roush, Mrs. Victor Ralston, Mrs. James Scott and Mrs. Robert Wolford.

Computers Help Trace Annoyance Calls

By STEVE DRAKE
Associated Press Writer
COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Prank and obscene telephone callers beware—the computer is out to get you.

Officials at Ohio's two largest telephone companies — Ohio Bell and General Telephone — say new, modern equipment being installed is aiding a crack-down in annoyance telephone calls.

Last year some 31,854 Ohio Bell customers registered complaints of obscene, threatening, interfering or harassing telephone calls. Officials at General Telephone said they received 1,848 complaints about annoyance calls.

Officials at both companies said these calls were a serious problem and one that is more prevalent in the large cities of the state.

Ohio Bell said 485 of its complaints were so serious that they were reported to their security department and the police. Of these serious complaints, 80 persons were traced and arrested by police.

Officials said in some cases one arrested person was responsible for as many as 20 complaints. And in other cases it was the second or third time the individual was arrested for making annoyance calls.

A General official said there are several methods used to catch the person responsible for the annoyance calls.

He said General usually used an electronic device called a pen register.

The pen register is hooked to the complainant's line. The device records the time and length of all calls to that line. The complainant keeps a log of the annoying calls and their times.

Officials then compare the pen register's data and the log and are able to trace the annoying caller to a specific line.

The police are generally called, the spokesman said, and usually an arrest is made.

The data from the pen register and the complainant's log are used as evidence to convict the caller.

Maximum sentence for conviction on a charge of annoyance calls is $500, six months imprisonment, or both.

Company officials say sentences vary. For example, a group of Canton youngsters used the telephone to turn in several false fire alarms. The number was traced and the teen-agers arrested. They were fined $1,100 to pay the cost to the fire department of the false runs.

But in Columbus, a woman was arrested twice in 12 days for making harassing calls. Following her first arrest she was fined $25 and sentenced to 10 days in jail. But the sentence was suspended on a promise not to make harassing calls for a year. She has not been tried for the second arrest.

The volume of annoying calls has become so large that Ohio Bell in Columbus has organized a special central office to handle the complaints. Three service representatives work fulltime on the customer complaints.

To catch the annoyance caller telephone security offices work closely with police. Telephone officials are able to trace the origin of the annoying call through a computer which releases the digits dialed.

Last month Columbus police—with the help of telephone officials — arrested a man who threatened to blow up the city's tallest building.

Security officials traced the call and informed the police who rushed to a South Side telephone booth and arrested the man.

Telephone officials complain that too many persons with serious annoyance calls do not report them to the company or police.

One General Telephone official

estimated that only one in 10 annoying calls is reported to his company.

Tokyo Isolated By Snow Storm

TOKYO (AP) — A snowstorm dumped 11 inches on Tokyo today, stranding more than a million commuters and paralyzing all land, sea and air transportation in central Japan.

The fall broke a 59-year-old March snow record in the Japanese capital—8.2 inches on March 12, 1910—and the central meteorological agency predicted an accumulation of 15 inches by night.

Fifty-two Japanese were injured, six of them seriously, when a train and a truck collided in driving snow in Kawagoe City.

Stiff Fight Continues In Biafra

UMUAHIA, Biafra (AP) — Heavy fighting continues inside Owerri in attempts by Biafran forces to clear Nigerian soldiers from the township, according to a Biafran communique.

Nearly 2,000 Nigerian soldiers are trapped in Owerri. Nigerian authorities acknowledged last week their forces there were encircled and supplies were being airdropped.

Biafran military authorities claimed attempts by the federals to break out were smashed by Biafran troops and the communique said Biafran soldiers were holding ground gained along the main Owerri-Port Harcourt road.

The communique said fighting continues on the Onitsha-Abagana highway but neither side has made any significant gain in this sector.

A high government official in Lagos, the Nigerian capital, said Col. Benjamin Adekunle's second in command has taken over a drive to break the isolation of a Nigerian brigade caught inside Owerri.

The official said the Nigerian air force continued to drop supplies to the estimated 2,000 troops of the 16th Brigade inside the otherwise virtually deserted town in central Biafra.

Biafrans cut the major supply roads from the south about 10 days ago.

Computers Help Trace Annoyance Calls

By STEVE DRAKE
Associated Press Writer
COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Prank and obscene telephone callers beware—the computer is out to get you.

Officials at Ohio's two largest telephone companies — Ohio Bell and General Telephone — say new, modern equipment being installed is aiding a crack-down in annoyance telephone calls.

Last year some 31,854 Ohio Bell customers registered complaints of obscene, threatening, interfering or harassing telephone calls. Officials at General Telephone said they received 1,848 complaints about annoyance calls.

Officials at both companies said these calls were a serious problem and one that is more prevalent in the large cities of the state.

Ohio Bell said 485 of its complaints were so serious that they were reported to their security department and the police. Of these serious complaints, 80 persons were traced and arrested by police.

Officials said in some cases one arrested person was responsible for as many as 20 complaints. And in other cases it was the second or third time the individual was arrested for making annoyance calls.

A General official said there are several methods used to catch the person responsible for the annoyance calls.

He said General usually used an electronic device called a pen register.

The pen register is hooked to the complainant's line. The device records the time and length of all calls to that line. The complainant keeps a log of the annoying calls and their times.

Officials then compare the pen register's data and the log and are able to trace the annoying caller to a specific line.

The police are generally called, the spokesman said, and usually an arrest is made.

The data from the pen register and the complainant's log are used as evidence to convict the caller.

Maximum sentence for conviction on a charge of annoyance calls is $500, six months imprisonment, or both.

Company officials say sentences vary. For example, a group of Canton youngsters used the telephone to turn in several false fire alarms. The number was traced and the teen-agers arrested. They were fined $1,100 to pay the cost to the fire department of the false runs.

But in Columbus, a woman was arrested twice in 12 days for making harassing calls. Following her first arrest she was fined $25 and sentenced to 10 days in jail. But the sentence was suspended on a promise not to make harassing calls for a year. She has not been tried for the second arrest.

The volume of annoying calls has become so large that Ohio Bell in Columbus has organized a special central office to handle the complaints. Three service representatives work fulltime on the customer complaints.

To catch the annoyance caller telephone security offices work closely with police. Telephone officials are able to trace the origin of the annoying call through a computer which releases the digits dialed.

Last month Columbus police— with the help of telephone officials — arrested a man who threatened to blow up the city's tallest building.

Security officials traced the call and informed the police who rushed to a South Side telephone booth and arrested the man.

Telephone officials complain that too many persons with serious annoyance calls do not report them to the company or police.

One General Telephone official

estimated that only one in 10 annoying calls is reported to his company.

And an Ohio Bell official said: "Too many people don't ask us for help."

Something To Think About . . . Progress?

By JEAN CRIST

The tremendous gap that now exists between the advancement we have made in technology and that which we have made in the area of human relations, if it continues at the present rate, will soon become impossible to close. Supreme Court Ruling Studied; May Affect Case

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Recent U. S. Supreme Court decisions may alter the course of legal action to be taken against a 16-year-old Columbus boy accused of murdering an elderly neighbor woman.

Juvenile Court Judge John W. Hill said Wednesday he is studying psychiatric reports before making a decision in the case of Michael Hudson.

Hudson, charged with the murder last June 24 of Mrs. Perrie Mae Hart, 83, was bound to the Franklin County Grand Jury last Dec. 4. The grand jury is scheduled to hear his case next Tuesday.

In two recent cases, the Supreme Court held a juvenile should not be bound to the grand jury for trial as an adult unless the juvenile judge rules that rehabilitation of the youth as a juvenile is not possible and the best interest of society would require that the youth be tried as an adult.

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Research at state universities will have to be curtailed sharply in the next two years to concentrate on technical education, the House Finance Committee was told Wednesday.

Dr. John D. Millett, chancellor of the Ohio Board of Regents, said, "During the next two years we have to make a choice between research and technical vocation. In the long run both needs will have to be met."

Millett said he thought higher education in Ohio should adopt a student aid program because student fees are high enough now.

progress" is used purposely for I feel much that is done today is listed under the heading of progress and therefore is excused, condoned and not to be disputed, for anyone who disagrees with progress cannot be a rational person. What then becomes important is the definition of the word progress. According to Webster, it is defined as follows: progress — a proceeding to a higher stage or through such stages successively; continuous improvement; growth or development; the development of an individual or group in a direction considered as beneficial and to a degree greater than that yet attained. The definition implies that true progress is, of necessity, a slow, step by step process by which we reach an end result that is an improvement compared to our starting point.

In the light of this definition, is much of what we now term progress really that, or is it the result of a few who desire quick, exorbitant profit and, or political power and who try to present what is in reality a false national image, that because of our vast technological advances, we lead the world. We may succeed in fooling ourselves but it is becoming increasingly obvious we are not fooling the rest of the world.

It is no longer possible to hide the fact that we as a nation have neglected, to a deplorable extent, to give equal opportunity to all of our people to find fulfillment, each in his own way. We have failed to give adequate help to those who for various reasons could not keep the pace and have fallen far behind, despairing of ever attaining even a moderate amount of health and happiness that each of us hopes to get from life. The evidence is around us for all to see in the dissatisfaction of many of our young people, the misery of the poor, the broken spirit of many of the black people and the ever-rising crime and suicide rates.

The greatest need in this nation and in the world today is for people to learn to relate to other people and the greatest responsibility this country has is to put to use its vast stores of knowledge and power to carry out this responsibility regarding it as of prime importance. Continued neglect in this area will make today's troubles seem minute in comparison to what will confront us in future years.

James Truslow Adams tells the following story. A friend of mine, a distinguished explorer who spent a couple of years among the savages of the upper Amazon, once attempted a forced march through the jungle. The party made extraordinary speed for the first two days, but on the third morning, when it was time to start, my friend found all the natives sitting on their haunches looking very solemn and making no preparation to leave. "They are waiting," the chief explained to my friend. "They cannot move farther until their souls have caught up with their bodies." I can think of no better illustration of our own plight today. Is there no way of letting our souls, so to say, catch up with our bodies?

In other words, our development as human beings must be brought in better proportion to the degree of material advancement we have made or the imbalance caused by this disparity will be destructive rather than truly progressive.

This goal in achieving a workable balance in these two areas is probably the greatest challenge we face today and upon the outcome of our efforts in this realm may hinge our survival as a nation.

Akron Officer Faces Charges

AKRON, Ohio (AP)—Akron Patrolman James G. Lyons, 27, who resigned last week, was charged Wednesday with grand larceny following a secret indictment by the Summit County Grand Jury.

Lyons pleaded innocent before Common Pleas Judge William H. Victor and was released on $1,000 bond.

The indictment came after $1,580 was returned in three envelopes to a night depository at a branch bank near a supermarket where Lyons worked part time as a uniformed guard.

There was a note with the money and it allegedly was from a parent who said a son stole the money.

State Valuation Of Property Made

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Buildings and equipment owned by the State of Ohio have a value of $1.5 billion, State Auditor Roger Cloud reported Wednesday.

He said the annual inventory of state property covering the fiscal year ended June 30, 1968, placed the actual valuation figure at $1,520,705,847, an increase of $212,054,266 or 16.2 per cent over the 1967 valuation.

He said the total figure does not include any valuation for state highways, since there is no method by which an accurate determination could be made.

turn of his secretary of defense from Vietnam before making a final decision on deployment of the Sentinel antiballistic missile —ABM—system.

White House Press secretary Ronald L. Ziegler said a decision still is planned this week, but not before Nixon confers with Melvin R. Laird. The defense chief, a supporter of ABM deployment, is due home late tonight from a war-zone inspection.

The subject was also before the National Security Council again today.

Ziegler did not rule out the possibility that Nixon would announce his decision on nationwide radio and television. However, Ziegler said the President did not want any such announcement to compete with the Apollo 9 splashdown Thursday morning.

Nixon told a news conference last Thursday he would announce a decision the controversial Sentinel system the first of this week. But he delayed action after an intensive weekend review in Florida.

As the delay stretched into Tuesday with the President showing no sign he had selected one of the three apparent options, opponents of the ABM mounted a new effort to get the $5 billion project scrapped.

Besides the unlikely possibility of junking the ABM, Nixon could compromise with orders for a limited deployment or order fullscale resumption of the project he halted several weeks ago amid criticism of cost and fear of accidental detonation of one of the nuclear-tipped defensive missiles.

Start Probe Of Battelle Institute

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Atty. Gen. Paul W. Brown has begun an investigation to determine whether the multi-million-dollar Battelle Memorial Institute has met its obligations for "charitable contributions."

Franklin County Probate Judge Richard B. Metcalf, in requesting the probe Wednesday also asked Brown to determine if the internationally known institute's operations have exceeded the scope of the 49-year-old bequest which began it.

Metcalf said he learned recently that the will of Gordon

Battelle, Columbus industrialist who bequeathed a $1.7 million trust fund to establish the institute, stipulated that the institute's profits over 20 per cent of the legacy be distributed to charities.

Yearly financial statements filed by Battelle in probate court give no indication of any charitable contributions made by the institute since it was founded in 1929, Metcalf said.

A balance sheet Battelle's assistant treasurer, Paul R. Longdon, filed with the court for the year ended Dec. 31, 1967, listed total assets of $150,080,357 and a total net worth of $144,655,978.

The judge indicated in calling for an inquiry that the Gordon Battelle will may have outlined a more limited purpose for the institute than its present worldwide operations.

Tanzania Fears Desert Locusts

DAR ES SALAAM (AP) — Tanzanian Agricultural experts are bracing their locust-control organization for an "extremely potential" threat from desert swarms now in Ethiopia and Sudan.

Derek Bryceson, the agriculture minister, said a few locusts had been found in northern Tanzania recently, but they were not the feared desert type.

But the threat to Tanzania's northern grain fields is great, he added, and locust-control units have been alerted to fight through Kenya or Uganda.

Spring Planting Under Way; Good Crop Year Expected

By ED HOWARD
Associated Press Writer
COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Spring planting is starting on schedule in southern Ohio this month and despite recent dry weather, conditions point to a good crop year—one that may challenge last year's record yields.

A late freeze could cause planting problems but the dry spell of recent weeks hasn't offset the January rainfall.

"Water conditions look excellent for this time of year," says Weather Bureau climatologist Marvin E. Miller.

Spring planting, usually beginning with Adams and Scioto

County tobacco crops, reaches a peak when farmers in north-west Ohio plant major crops of wheat, corn and soybeans in mid-April.

January rainfall measured at 3.40 inches has compensated for moisture lost in late February and early March, Miller said.

The Weather Bureau says rainfall and temperatures will average below normal for the rest of March.

"Reservoirs, wells and ground water levels are good," Miller said. "Farmers don't have to worry right now" about a lack of precipitation in March.

Spring plowing has begun "in scattered portions of the state," a report by the Ohio Crop Reporting Service indicates.

"Last year we had an extremely warm March," Miller added. "Then on March 20 heavy rains began that held up work for three weeks."

That didn't prevent corn, soybean, oat and hay crops from breaking yield per acre records.

"The heavy wet snow that fell in mid-March didn't last long enough to do any harm, either," Miller said.

Conditions appear favorable for crop growers, especially in the highly productive northwest areas of the state.

A U. S. Department of Agriculture Survey of crop forecasts for 1969 on 12,000 Ohio farms is being released Friday in Washington.

State Pay Raise Set

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — State Finance Director Howard Collier said Wednesday a tentative plan is being prepared to provide pay increases for all state employees earning less than $9,000 a year.

Collier said about 40,000 of the state's 47,000 workers fall into that category.

Under the tentative plan, Collier said, starting and lower paid employees would get the largest increases, ranging up to 15 per cent.

Collier said he, Gov. James A. Rhodes and legislative leaders agree that a pay boost is in order.

Both Collier and State Personnel Director Wayne Ward said earlier this year there was no money to permit a general pay raise.

Dear Abby: She Would Keep Dog, Ditch Doctor

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: You sure let me down. Why did you back up that allergy doctor when he advised the woman to get rid of the Chihuahua she had for eight years?

Now, what I think? I think those allergy doctors all hate pets. I went to one once and he told me I was allergic to house dust and cat fur—and I didn't even own a cat! When those allergy doctors can't find anything else to blame, they always give you a dog or cat story. If I were that woman, I'd keep the Chihuahua and get rid of the doctor. Very truly yours,

HATES DOCTORS

DEAR HATES: Sorry, but dogs and cats frequently ARE the culprits in cases of allergies. There is a simple test, however, to determine the validity of the doctor's diagnosis. Get rid of the pet temporarily, and if the symptoms disappear, you'll know the pet was the cause.

DEAR ABBY: On St. Valentine's day, the gentleman I've been dating gave me a bottle of perfume in my favorite fragrance. He also took me to dinner and presented me with a beautiful orchid corsage. But then he spoiled it all by handing me a $25 GIFT CERTIFICATE! It was like a slap in the face.

I tried not to show my shock and disappointment, but I still haven't been able to bring myself to cash it. Should I drop him?

INSULTED

DEAR INSULTED: Sorry, but I can't see any reason for being "shocked, disappointed or insulted." But if you should decide to drop this gentleman, let me know where you drop him. I know about 30 women who would love to meet him.

DEAR ABBY I am a lonely widower of only two months. I decided to visit these friends whom I have known a long time, feeling that I would be welcome.

Abby, I took my own bottle

Woman Freed In Slaying

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Ohio Supreme Court action Wednesday closed the case against an Akron woman who killed her 3-year-old son when she threw a curtain rod in a fit of anger.

The court refused to hear an appeal launched by the Summit County prosecutor against Joanne Thompson.

A three-judge Common Pleas Court panel in July 1967 convicted Mrs. Thompson of manslaughter in the death of her son, Roger Eric.

But the Court of Appeals reversed the conviction, ruling that throwing a light curtain rod "was not an act in which a reasonably prudent individual would anticipate that death would result."

The Supreme Court's refusal to hear the case means the appeals court ruling will stand.

Court records show that Mrs. Thompson struck both the boy and another child with the rod when they became unruly. Angerily, she walked across the room and threw the rod. It struck the boy in the eye and caused his death, records showed.

Senate Probers Study Ray Case

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate Internal Security subcommittee is assembling evidence bearing on a possible conspiracy in the killing of the Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.

Announcing this, Chairman James O. Eastland, D-Miss., said the subcommittee has received some direct information that indicates to him that James Earl Ray did not act alone in the slaying of the leader of the Southern Christian Leadership conference in Memphis, Tenn., last April 4.

Ray pleaded guilty to the murder of King and was taken to the state prison at Nashville, Tenn., Tuesday to begin serving a 99-year sentence.

State Pay Raise Set

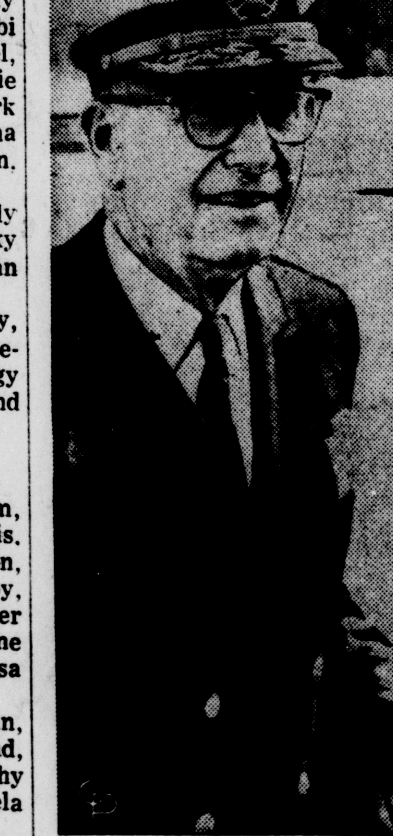

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — State Finance Director Howard Collier said Wednesday a tentative plan is being prepared to provide pay increases for all state employees earning less than $9,000 a year.

Collier said about 40,000 of the state's 47,000 workers fall into that category.

Under the tentative plan, Collier said, starting and lower paid employees would get the largest increases, ranging up to 15 per cent.

Collier said he, Gov. James A. Rhodes and legislative leaders agree that a pay boost is in order.

Both Collier and State Personnel Director Wayne Ward said earlier this year there was no money to permit a general pay raise.

Dear Abby: She Would Keep Dog, Ditch Doctor

DEAR ABBY: You sure let me down. Why did you back up that allergy doctor when he advised the woman to get rid of the Chihuahua she had for eight years?

Know what I think? I think those allergy doctors all hate pets. I went to one once and he told me I was allergic to house dust and cat fur—and I didn't even own a cat! When those allergy doctors can't find anything else to blame, they always give you a dog or cat story. If I were that woman, I'd keep the Chihuahua and get rid of the doctor. Very truly yours,

HATES DOCTORS
DEAR HATES: Sorry, but dogs and cats frequently ARE the culprits in cases of allergies. There is a simple test, however, to determine the validity of the doctor's diagnosis. Get rid of the pet temporarily, and if the symptoms disappear, you'll know the pet was the cause.

DEAR ABBY: On St. Valentine's day, the gentleman I've been dating gave me a bottle of perfume in my favorite fragrance. He also took me to dinner and presented me with a beautiful orchid corsage. But then he spoiled it all by handing me a $25 GIFT CERTIFICATE! It was like a slap in the face.

I tried not to show my shock and disappointment, but I still haven't been able to bring myself to cash it. Should I drop him?

INSULTED
DEAR INSULTED: Sorry, but I can't see any reason for being "shocked, disappointed or insulted." But if you should decide to drop this gentleman, let me know where you drop him. I know about 30 women who would love to meet him.

DEAR ABBY I am a lonely widower of only two months. I decided to visit these friends whom I have known a long time, feeling that I would be welcome.

Abby, I took my own bottle

Ashville News Report

Mrs. John Sabine — 983-7831

The annual basketball banquet of Teays Valley High School sponsored by the Athletic Booster Club will be held Friday March 28. This date was set at the monthly meeting of the club on Monday evening. Honored guests at the banquet will be the members of the varsity, reserve and freshman teams, coaches and cheerleaders of each team.

A carry-in dinner will be served at 7 p.m. Each family attending is asked to bring a well filled basket which includes a meat dish and table service. Rolls and beverages will be furnished by the Booster Club. Table service for all honored guests will be provided.

There will be a dance following the dinner. The dance will be limited to high school students only, unless a younger child has attended the banquet accompanied by his parents.

Other business at the meeting included a monetary donation to the payment of fare for a transit bus taking students to the Teays Valley - Newark basketball game in Columbus last week. Notes of thanks were to be sent to Marshal Clay, Sheriff Radcliff and the Columbus Police Department for their assistance of the motor caravan to the game.

'Top Cop' Delivers Ode At Love-In

DETROIT (AP)—If you want to know what love is, just ask Detroit Police Commissioner Johannes Spreen.

Detroit's top cop went on television Tuesday to deliver an essay he wrote and copyrighted himself, which gave 18 answers to the question.

The TV appearance came on the 26th day of a 100-day Love-In between the police and Detroiters, which Spreen proposed last Valentine's Day.

Spreen's ode included 18 definitions of love but its main point was that "if I had to pick one thing that could really do the job and solve the problem — it's love."

The 49-year-old former New York policeman is not turning hippie, but he said, "We seniors over 30 know about love also. Maybe we can teach the younger generation a few things about love and love - ins."

"If you do your thing well within the law and within the bounds of property," intoned the commissioner, "that's love."

"If you care about your fellow citizens no matter that their hue—that's love."

"If you consider the feelings of the other person as an individual who is with you on this small spinning speck of dust called Earth—that's love."

Abernathy Plans National March

MIAMI (AP)—Dr. Ralph David Abernathy says poor people will march on Washington again next month but there will not be another Resurrection City.

Abernathy, who succeeded Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. as head of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, said the march will begin in Memphis, Tenn., on April 4—the first anniversary of King's assassination in Memphis—and will spread across the nation.

Abernathy said he will lead the march which he called the second chapter of the Poor People's campaign. He said the campaign will include a "Black Easter" celebration, but did not elaborate.

A letter of thanks was read from Mr. Benis Lutz. He thanked the club members for their help at the District Tournament sessions held at the school and for all other assistance, volunteer and financial, for the past basketball season as well as during the school year.

The next meeting of the club will be held April 7. All interested persons in the Teays Valley School District are cordially invited to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. John Swingle and family are in the process of moving into their newly purchased home at the corner of East and Cherry Streets. The property was formerly owned by the Marvin Custer family.

Mrs. Ralph Heil (Esther Smith) a former Ashville resident is a patient in Grant Hospital, Columbus. Her room number is 939.

Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Greisheimer, Richard Jay and Bobby of Bellbrook, O., Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Morrison and Mrs. Ben Morrison of Ashville were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Greisheimer of Chillicothe. The occasion marked the birthdays of Mrs. Elwood Morrison and her daughter Kay Greisheimer and Mrs. Frank Greisheimer.

Mrs. Hugh Huffer spent the weekend at Otterbein College as the guest of her daughter, Candy, for Mother's Weekend. Candy is a freshman student at the college.

The Pythian Sisters of Ashville Temple No. 366 will meet Tuesday evening, March 18 in the K of P Hall. Serving as hostesses for the evening will be Carolyn Peters, Madge Baum, Virginia Boyer, Mildred Morrison and Connie Johnson.

Mr. and Mrs. Steve Cook were guests of the Whitehall Kiwanis Club at Miller's Restaurant in Gahanna Saturday evening. The event marked the Whitehall Club's presidents banquet.

The Zion United Methodist Church is planning another paper drive to be held April 12. Anyone wishing to have papers picked up are asked to call Richard or Steve Cook.

Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Dale Schiff, Mike and David, were Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Hancher Jr., and Natalie of Circleville. Afternoon callers were Mr. and Mrs. Richard Hedges, also of Circleville.

The Ashville Kiwanis Club will have a sausage and pancake dinner at the Ashville Community Park on Sunday, March 16, all you can eat. Serving will be from 9 a.m. until 2 p.m.

The Everfaithful Class of the Zion United Methodist Church will meet Monday March 17, 7:30 p.m. in the church basement. Hostesses for the evening will be Georgia Myers and Virgie Wean.

The Teays Valley Youth Baseball League will meet at the Ashville Shelter House on Thursday, March 13, at 7:30 p.m. The meeting is open to the public. Managers, coaches and umpires are still needed for the coming season.

Results of the Tuesday morning housewives bowling league for March 11 were: high single game and series, Ruth Mitchum 202 and 562; high team game and series, Burton's Jewelers, 684 and 1,900.

National Guard Is Called Into Durham School Protest

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

National Guardsmen were on duty to prevent any new vandalism by college students in Durham, N.C., today. Dissidents continued nonviolent protests at campuses elsewhere across the nation.

At Princeton University a group of alumni disturbed by the new student militancy and the trend toward Ivy League co-education announced it would run insurgent candidates for the board of trustees.

There was vandalism for the third straight day in some Los Angeles high schools and firecracker explosions caused some damage at two New York City schools.

North Carolina Gov. Bob Scott ordered the four companies of National Guardsmen to Durham after the mayor imposed a 7 p.m. to 5 a.m. curfew to forestall any new violence by protesting Negro students.

Store windows were broken, two buses were damaged and some looting was reported after a demonstration Tuesday by the students from Duke University and predominantly Negro North Carolina College.

The curfew was largely effective, police said. Two incidents of firebombing were reported and 40 persons arrested for curfew violations.

The protesters are supporting Negro students who withdrew from Duke after the administration rejected their demand for equal representation with faculty on a committee to establish a black studies program.

At Princeton a spokesman for the dissident alumni group claimed "the voice of the majority of alumni is not being heard by the university."

In Los Angeles the continuing crisis brought orders from the school board authorizing principals to suspend or recommend expulsion for any student involved in the violence.

Nine police divisions were on tactical alert as 11 schools were hit by demonstrations. There were 65 minor fires. Police chief Thomas Reddin said he saw a "definite conspiracy" behind the outbreak.

The Black Students Union is demanding that police be barred from campuses in minority areas and that black studies courses be instituted.

Scouting Offers Programs In Arts, Home, Outdoors

Girl Scouting offers girls, a single, continuing program centered around the arts, the home and the out of doors. The program is geared to the needs and interests of the four age levels of Scouting.

This year special emphasis has been placed on the arts.

Girls in troop 1051 have been working on badges in this field and were happy to have Senior Scout Patricia Brackett come to their troop and share her art work with them.

There are 11 very active Senior Girl Scouts in the Circleville troop who with their adviser, Mrs. L. E. Heuerman are interested in many areas. Helping younger girls with their Scout Badge Work is just one of the ways they put into practice their Promise and Laws.

Recently six Circleville Senior Scouts attended a Conference at Burr Oak State Park along with some 160 Senior Girl Scouts and 12 adults. The program for this weekend was the direct result of the girls' own planning. Their ideas revolved around understanding themselves, others and their world.

They wanted to know about areas they felt no one would talk to them about — they wanted facts no lectures or preaching. The Conference was designed to give them practical information about problems they face now which would help them form their own valid judgement.

The girls came home with new ideas and enthusiasm for the Girl Scout Program which they realize is indeed relevant in today's world.

Students To Attend Institute

Four students, one from each of the county's high schools, will attend the World Affairs Institute at Cincinnati.

The institute is sponsored annually by Cincinnati Rotary Club and AVCO.

The student representatives, selected through Circleville Rotary, are Jonda Steinhauer of Westfall; Dave Sadler, Circleville; Steve Troehler from Logan Elm; and Robert Hines, representing Teays Valley.

Each year the institute features a guest speaker from another nation or organization. The featured speaker of the upcoming meeting is His Excellency A. E. Ritchie, Ambassador of Canada to the United States who will speak on subject matter relative to his native country and its relations with other peoples of the world.

Students will later be divided into small groups, each with an instructor, where discussions will be held concerning the text of the featured speaker. It is then the duty of the representative students to relay the information received at the institute to fellow government students in their respective schools.

The Pickaway County delegates are scheduled to depart Circleville Friday morning, March 14 and will return Saturday night.

The annual basketball banquet of Teays Valley High School sponsored by the Athletic Booster Club will be held Friday March 28. This date was set at the monthly meeting of the club on Monday evening. Honored guests at the banquet will be the members of the varsity, reserve and freshman teams, coaches and cheerleaders of each team.

A carry-in dinner will be served at 7 p.m. Each family attending is asked to bring a well filled basket which includes a meat dish and table service. Rolls and beverages will be furnished by the Booster Club. Table service for all honored guests will be provided.

There will be a dance following the dinner. The dance will be limited to high school students only, unless a younger child has attended the banquet accompanied by his parents.

Other business at the meeting included a monetary donation to the payment of fare for a transit bus taking students to the Teays Valley - Newark basketball game in Columbus last week. Notes of thanks were to be sent to Marshal Clay, Sheriff Radcliff and the Columbus Police Department for their assistance of the motor caravan to the game.

'Top Cop' Delivers Ode At Love-In

DETROIT (AP)—If you want to know what love is, just ask Detroit Police Commissioner Johannes Spreen.

Detroit's top cop went on television Tuesday to deliver an essay he wrote and copyrighted himself, which gave 18 answers to the question.

The TV appearance came on the 26th day of a 100-day Love-In between the police and Detroiters, which Spreen proposed last Valentine's Day.

Spreen's ode included 18 definitions of love but its main point was that "if I had to pick one thing that could really do the job and solve the problem — it's love."

The 49-year-old former New York policeman is not turning hippie, but he said, "We seniors over 30 know about love also. Maybe we can teach the younger generation a few things about love and love — ins."

"If you do your thing well within the law and within the bounds of property," intoned the commissioner, "that's love."

"If you care about your fellow citizens no matter that their hue—that's love."

"If you consider the feelings of the other person as an individual who is with you on this small spinning speck of dust called Earth—that's love."

Abernathy Plans National March

MIAMI (AP) — Dr. Ralph David Abernathy says poor people will march on Washington again next month but there will not be another Resurrection City.

Abernathy, who succeeded Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. as head of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, said the march will begin in Memphis, Tenn., on April 4—the first anniversary of King's assassination in Memphis—and will spread across the nation.

Abernathy said he will lead the march which he called the second chapter of the Poor People's campaign. He said the campaign will include a "Black Easter" celebration, but did not elaborate.

A letter of thanks was read from Mr. Benis Lutz. He thanked the club members for their help at the District Tournament sessions held at the school and for all other assistance, volunteer and financial, for the past basketball season as well as during the school year.

The next meeting of the club will be held April 7. All interested persons in the Teays Valley School District are cordially invited to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. John Swingle and family are in the process of moving into their newly purchased home at the corner of East and Cherry Streets. The property was formerly owned by the Marvin Custer family.

Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Grelshimer, Richard Jay and Bobby of Bellbrook, O., Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Morrison and Mrs. Ben Morrison of Ashville were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Grelshimer of Chillicothe. The occasion marked the birthdays of Mrs. Elwood Morrison and her daughter Kay Grelshimer and Mrs. Frank Grelshimer.

Mrs. Hugh Huffer spent the weekend at Otterbein College as the guest of her daughter, Candy, for Mother's Weekend. Candy is a freshman student at the college.

The Pythian Sisters of Ashville Temple No. 365 will meet Tuesday evening, March 18 in the K of P Hall. Serving as hostesses for the evening will be Carolyn Peters, Madge Baum, Virginia Boyer, Mildred Morrison and Connie Johnson.

Mr. and Mrs. Steve Cook were guests of the Whitehall Kiwanis Club at Miller's Restaurant in Gahanna Saturday evening. The event marked the Whitehall Club's presidents banquet.

The Zion United Methodist Church is planning another paper drive to be held April 12. Anyone wishing to have papers picked up are asked to call Richard or Steve Cook.

Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Dale Schiff, Mike and David, were Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Hancher Jr., and Natalie of Circleville. Afternoon callers were Mr. and Mrs. Richard Hedges, also of Circleville.

The Ashville Kiwanis Club will have a sausage and pancake dinner at the Ashville Community Park on Sunday, March 16, all you can eat. Serving will be from 9 a.m. until 2 p.m.

The Everfaithful Class of the Zion United Methodist Church will meet Monday March 17, 7:30 p.m. in the church basement. Hostesses for the evening will be Georgia Myers and Virgie Wean.

The Teays Valley Youth Baseball League will meet at the Ashville Shelter House on Thursday, March 13, at 7:30 p.m. The meeting is open to the public. Managers, coaches and umpires are still needed for the coming season.

Results of the Tuesday morning housewives bowling league for March 11 were: high single game and series, Ruth Mitchum 202 and 562; high team game and series, Burton's Jewelers, 684 and 1,900.

National Guard Is Called Into Durham School Protest

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
National Guardsmen were on duty to prevent any new vandalism by college students in Durham, N.C., today. Dissidents continued nonviolent protests at campuses elsewhere across the nation.

At Princeton University a group of alumni disturbed by the new student militancy and the trend toward Ivy League co-education announced it would run insurgent candidates for the board of trustees. There was vandalism for the third straight day in some Los Angeles high schools and firecracker explosions caused some damage at two New York City schools.

North Carolina Gov. Bob Scott ordered the four companies of National Guardsmen to Durham after the mayor imposed a 7 p.m. to 5 a.m. curfew to forestall any new violence by protesting Negro students.

Store windows were broken, two buses were damaged and some looting was reported after a demonstration Tuesday by the students from Duke University and predominantly Negro North Carolina College.

The curfew was largely effective, police said. Two incidents of firebombing were reported and 40 persons arrested for curfew violations.

Student Subsidy Bill Introduced

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — A bill to provide subsidies of $100 to $900 per year for students in private college will be introduced in the Senate today.

The Rhodes administration proposal limits the grants to campuses where fees are $1,000 per year or more.

The legislation, nearly identical to a plan approved by the Board of Regents last month will be introduced by Republican Sens. John Weeks, Cleveland, and Ralph Regula, Navarre.

Rhodes estimates the program will cost $7.3 million a year.

Canton McKinley, Newark Winners Of Cage Regionals

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Canton McKinley and Newark advanced to Class AA regional finals with victories in high school basketball tournament action Wednesday night, while Bridgeport moved up among smaller-school Class A teams.

McKinley, 23-1, rapped Akron Central 66-53 at the Canton tournament to give the Bulldogs a shot Saturday at the winner of the Cleveland St. Joseph-Youngstown Ursuline game Thursday night.

Newark, 20-3, advanced to Saturday's regional finals in Columbus by clobbering Portsmouth 77-56. The Wildcats will meet the winner of the Columbus East-Zanesville game Thursday night.

In Class A action at Canton, Bridgeport, 23-1, edged Avon 76-71 to earn a berth in the finals Saturday against the survivor of Thursday's Springfield Local-Badger contest.

Second-ranked McKinley was led Wednesday night by all-Ohio candidate Nick Wetherspoon, who netted 24 points and grabbed 16 rebounds. The Bulldogs 61 per cent shooting accuracy from the free throw line, plus their proficiency on the boards and towering zone defense were too much for the small but quick Central team.

Newark used balance and accuracy, along with a 22-5 third period scoring advantage, in downing Portsmouth. Shooting 56 per cent from the field, Newark had all five starters in double figures, led by 6-foot-4 guard John Daniels, with 18 points. Portsmouth's Charlie Taylor led all scorers with 27 points.

A full court press plus balanced scoring by the starting five gave Bridgeport its victory over Avon—despite a 35-point performance by Avon's 6-foot-8 Mark Wager. The seventh-ranked Bulldogs used Avon's numerous turnovers and foul line miseries to an advantage and took charge in the fourth quarter, when Lou Burk scored seven of his 18 points.

Jim Stefanich Takes Lead In $50,000 Buckeye Open

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP) — Jim Stefanich, of Joliet, Ill., rolled a 232 average Wednesday to take the lead on the opening day of the Professional Bowlers Association's $50,000 Buckeye Open.

Stefanich, last year's Bowler of the Year with record winnings of $67,375, led a 168-man field with 2785 for 12 games.

Stefanich combined six-game blocks of 1416 and 1369 in taking a 21-pin lead over second-place Teata Semiz of River Edge, N. J., whose 2764 total included the first 300 game of the tournament and the fourth of his career.

The field goes another six games today before the first cut to the leading 88 bowlers. This group will bowl another six games tonight with the top 16 moving into Friday's semifinals.

The high five bowlers then go for the $6,000 first prize in Saturday's nationally televised finals.

The top 16 bowlers following opening day action:

1. Jim Stefanich, Joliet, Ill., 2785
2. Teata Semiz, River Edge,

Monsanto Open Golf Tourney Starts Today

PENSACOLA, Fla. (AP) — The course is tougher, the money is bigger and even the name is different for the $100,000 Monsanto Open Golf Tournament starting today.

The 67-year-old Pensacola Country Club course has been lengthened 143 yards to a total of 6,323 and additional sand traps placed strategically to catch errant tee shots.

Par has been shaved from 72 to 71.

Officials said they decided to toughen up the course because it played too easily for the long-hitting touring pros.

George Archer's winning 72-hole total last year was 29 under par 208, 11 strokes less than the average winning total in Florida.

South Africa's Gary Player and U.S. Open champion Lee Trevino predict Sunday's winner will finish at around 273.

"The course plays a lot harder," said Player, here for his first U.S. start this year.

The first prize has been upped to $20,000 and the total from $85,000 to $100,000. The name has been changed from Pensacola Open to Monsanto Open for one of the sponsors.

The fattened purse has attracted a field of 150 including many of golf's big names.

"I've been playing pretty nicely," said Player, the 1968 British Open champion. "I've always liked playing here, but this year the course is in better shape than ever."

Arnold Palmer is at home in Latrobe, Pa., nursing his ailing right hip and Jack Nicklaus also has decided to skip this one.

Six of this year's 10 tournament winners are here, including first time winners Ken Still, who took the Citrus Open, and Tom Shaw, who captured the Doral top money.

YMCA Gym Open To Youth Saturday

According to announcement by YMCA Director Harold Hewitt, a gym program is being planned Saturday for boys.

Immediately following the Gra-Y Basketball League at 10:30 a.m., the gym and game room will be open to grade school boys until noon.

At 12:15 p.m., the gym, weight room and game room will be open to Junior High boys. Hewitt said the boys will be supervised at all times. The Junior High period will end at 2 p.m., and will be followed by the Senior program from 2:30 to 4:30 p.m.

Although the program this Saturday is open to members and non-members, later usage of the facilities will be by membership only.

Boys will be expected to follow the Saturday schedule.

For those boys wishing to purchase YMCA memberships, the office will be open from noon until 4:30 p.m. Youth membership information and program schedules can be obtained by calling the YMCA or stopping in at the new facility.

Oakland Defeats Black Hawks, 4-1

By HAL BOCK

Associated Press Sports Writer Bobby Hull, who hardly needs it, has another line in the National Hockey League record book. But his 51st goal of the season may have signaled the last hurrah for the Chicago Black Hawks.

Hull tied Andy Bathgate's modern NHL record by scoring in his 10th consecutive game Wednesday night. But within three minutes after Hull's goal tied the game, Oakland struck for three scores and a 4-1 victory that dropped Chicago deeper in the East Division cellar.

In other games, New York rallied to defeat Pittsburgh 4-3 and Toronto blanked Los Angeles 4-0.

Welterweights Fight

SAO PAULO, Brazil (AP) — Italian boxer Massimo Consolati, ranked fourth in Europe, will fight Brazilian champion Joao Henrique in a 10-round junior welterweight bout here March 21.

The board also approved an application for a racing permit for Summit Racing Club for a program at Thistledown March 20-May 17. This meet replaces the former Ascot Park meet.

Senators Lose Again With Regulars Absent

By TOM SALADINO

Associated Press Sports Writer Ted Williams still is winless as a manager but it could be that the Thumper is only trying a new approach with his young Washington Senators.

After the Senators had lost Wednesday for the sixth straight time this spring, 5-4, in 10 innings to the Los Angeles Dodgers, Williams calmly explained his theory:

"What did we do last year in the spring? Won all of them, didn't they. And then finished last in the regular season."

Actually, the Senators didn't win them all, but their 17-8 mark in last year's exhibition season was the best in the majors. But when the regular season began, the Senators returned to form and finished last in the American League, 37½ games behind the champion Detroit Tigers.

"I want to look at the kids as long as I can," Williams said. "We'll do better when we get some of our regulars."

Wednesday, Williams' youngsters almost broke the string but were foiled by Willie Davis' run-scoring single in the 10th inning.

Rico Carty, sidelined all of last year with a case of tuberculosis, sparked Atlanta's 5-4 victory over the New York Yankees.

Carty rapped a single and two sacrifice flies, knocking in three runs as the Yanks lost for the first time in five games. Mike Lum added three hits and scored four runs for the Braves. Bill Robinson had a homer for New York.

In other Florida exhibitions, Cincinnati nipped Kansas City 4-3, Minnesota rapped the Chicago White Sox, 5-3, Philadelphia stopped Boston 7-5, Baltimore shut out Houston 4-0, the New York Mets pounded Detroit 12-0, St. Louis whipped Pittsburgh 6-3 and Montreal blasted the Yankees' B squad, 9-4.

In Arizona, Cleveland stopped Seattle 10-7, the Chicago Cubs downed San Francisco 8-6, Oakland beat California 5-2 and San Diego dropped Seattle's B team, 8-2.

Lee May cracked a third-inning homer and the Reds held off a ninth-inning rally by the Royals, which fell a run short.

Tony Oliva, the Twins' designated pinch hitter, slammed a two-run home run in the seventh inning, breaking a 3-3 tie. Gail Hopkins had a homer for the White Sox.

The Phillies took advantage of Red Sox errors and scored four unearned runs. Tony Conigliaro dropped a fly ball in the seventh inning, leading to three runs. The Phils' Larry Hise slammed his third home run of the spring and added a run-scoring double.

The Orioles got three-hit pitching from Mike Cuellar, Dick Hall and Pete Richert in downing the Astros. Cuellar limited his ex-mates to two hits in five innings. Frank Robinson and Dave Johnson each knocked in a run and had two hits apiece for the winners.

The Mets pounded three homers, including a grand slammer by rookie pitcher Gary Gentry and a three-run shot by Art Shamsky, in routing the Tigers on four hits. Cleon Jones added a solo clout for the Mets.

The Cardinals rapped Pirate starter Steve Blass for four second inning runs and got shutout pitching from Mike Torrez and Bo Belinsky before the Pirates got single tallies in the last three innings. Al Oliver had four hits for the losers.

Bob Bailey and Mack Jones clubbed two-run homers in leading the Expos over the Yankee B team.

The Indians took advantage of third baseman Mike Ferraro's eighth inning error, exploding for six unearned runs in stopping the Pilots. Cleveland had six hits, coupled with two more Pilot errors in the rally.

Rookie Oscar Gamble drove in three runs, including a two-run double in the second inning, leading the Cubs over the Giants. Willie Mays rapped his first homer of the spring and Dick Dietz had a two-run pinch blast for the G'ants.

Gamble was filling in for the injured Adolfo Phillips, the Cubs regular center fielder who was struck by a pitch and suffered a linear fracture of the right wrist Tuesday. Phillips will be out two weeks.

Another casualty was A's outfielder Tommy Reynolds, hit near his left ear by a Greg Washburn pitch in the Oakland victory over the Angels. Reggie Jackson had two h's and two RBI for the A's.

Reynolds, knocked unconscious by the ball, regained consciousness in the dressing room and was kept overnight in the hospital on a precautionary basis.

The Padres took advantage of 10 walks in stopping Seattle's B team.

Tony Oliva, the Twins' designated pinch hitter, slammed a two-run home run in the seventh inning, breaking a 3-3 tie. Gail Hopkins had a homer for the White Sox.

The Phillies took advantage of Red Sox errors and scored four unearned runs. Tony Conigliaro dropped a fly ball in the seventh inning, leading to three runs. The Phils' Larry Hise slammed his third home run of the spring and added a run-scoring double.

The Orioles got three-hit pitching from Mike Cuellar, Dick Hall and Pete Richert in downing the Astros. Cuellar limited his ex-mates to two hits in five innings. Frank Robinson and Dave Johnson each knocked in a run and had two hits apiece for the winners.

The Mets pounded three homers, including a grand slammer by rookie pitcher Gary Gentry and a three-run shot by Art Shamsky, in routing the Tigers on four hits. Cleon Jones added a solo clout for the Mets.

The Cardinals rapped Pirate starter Steve Blass for four second inning runs and got shutout pitching from Mike Torrez and Bo Belinsky before the Pirates

Colonels Rip N.Y. Nets, 106-98

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS Darel Carrier and Gene Moore combined for 49 points to keep the Kentucky Colonels on top in the Eastern Division of the American Basketball Association.

Carrier threw in 27 points and Moore 22 as the Colonels defeated the New York Nets 106-98 at Louisville Wednesday night and took a half game lead over the idle Indiana Pacers. A defeat would have dropped the Colonels out of first place. Willie Somerset scored 31 for the Nets.

New Orleans rallied for a 107-102 road victory over Miami and Dallas, playing at home, whipped Minnesota 122-100. Los Angeles also won at home, beating Denver 125-122 in overtime. James Jones' 28 points, including a vital basket with one minute left, paced New Orleans over Miami. John Beasley and Cinc Powell each scored 25 points to lead Dallas over Minnesota.

Denver scored five points in the last 27 seconds to tie Los Angeles at the end of regulation time, 118-118, but baskets by George Stone and George Lehmann put the Stars ahead to stay in the overtime.

Lehmann tallied 30 points for the Stars while Wayne Hightower had 33 and Larry Jones 32 for Denver.

Plan 'Little Man' Basketball Award

SPRINGFIELD, Mass. (AP) — A new award honoring the outstanding little man in college basketball will be made for the first time this season, Lee Williams, executive director of the Naismith Basketball Hall of Fame announced today.

The first winner, who must be six feet or under, will be announced by a selection committee at the annual convention of the National Association of Basketball Coaches in Louisville later this month. The new award was instituted by James S. Naismith of Corpus Christi, Tex., son of the game's inventor in 1891.

Canton McKinley, Newark Winners Of Cage Regionals

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS. Canton McKinley and Newark advanced to Class AA regional finals with victories in high school basketball tournament action Wednesday night, while Bridgeport moved up among smaller-school Class A teams.

McKinley, 23-1, rapped Akron Central 66 - 53 at the Canton tournament to give the Bulldogs a shot Saturday at the winner of the Cleveland St. Joseph-Youngstown Ursuline game Thursday night.

Newark, 20 - 3, advanced to Saturday's regional finals in Columbus by clobbering Portsmouth 77-56. The Wildcats will meet the winner of the Columbus-East-Zanesville game Thursday night.

In Class A action at Canton, Bridgeport, 23 - 1, edged Avon 76-71 to earn a berth in the finals Saturday against the survivor of Thursday's Springfield-Local-Badger contest.

Second-ranked McKinley was led Wednesday night by all-Ohio candidate Nick Wetherspoon, who netted 24 points and grabbed 16 rebounds. The Bulldogs 61 per cent shooting accuracy from the free throw line, plus their proficiency on the boards and towering zone defense were too much for the small but quick Central team.

Newark used balance and accuracy, along with a 22-5 third period scoring advantage, in downing Portsmouth. Shooting 56 per cent from the field, Newark had all five starters in double figures, led by 6-foot-4 guard John Daniels, with 18 points. Portsmouth's Charlie Taylor led all scorers with 27 points.

A full court press plus balanced scoring by the starting five gave Bridgeport its victory over Avon—despite a 35-point performance by Avon's 6-foot-8 Mark Wager. The seventh-ranked Bulldogs used Avon's numerous turnovers and foul line miseries to an advantage and took charge in the fourth quarter, when Lou Burk scored seven of his 18 points.

Jim Stefanich Takes Lead In $50,000 Buckeye Open

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP) — Jim Stefanich, of Joliet, Ill., rolled a 232 average Wednesday to take the lead on the opening day of the Professional Bowlers Association's $50,000 Buckeye Open.

Stefanich, last year's Bowler of the Year with record winnings of $67,375, led a 168-man field with 2785 for 12 games.

Stefanich combined six-game blocks of 1416 and 1369 in taking a 21-pin lead over second-place Teata Semiz of River Edge, N. J., whose 2764 total included the first 300 game of the tournament and the fourth of his career.

The field goes another six games today before the first cut to the leading 88 bowlers. This group will bowl another six games tonight with the top 16 moving into Friday's semifinals.

The high five bowlers then go for the $6,000 first prize in Saturday's nationally televised finals.

The top 16 bowlers following opening day action:

1. Jim Stefanich, Joliet, Ill., 2785
2. Teata Semiz, River Edge,

Monsanto Open Golf Tourney Starts Today

PENSACOLA, Fla. (AP) — The course is tougher, the money is bigger and even the name is different for the $100,000 Monsanto Open Golf Tournament starting today.

The 67-year-old Pensacola Country Club course has been lengthened 143 yards to a total of 6,523 and additional sand traps placed strategically to catch errant tee shots.

Par has been shaved from 72 to 71.

Officials said they decided to toughen up the course because it played too easily for the long-hitting touring pros.

George Archer's winning 72-hole total last year was 20 under par 263, 11 strokes less than the average winning total in Florida.

South Africa's Gary Player and U.S. Open champion Lee Trevino predict Sunday's winner will finish at around 273.

"The course plays a lot harder," said Player, here for his first U.S. start this year.

The first prize has been upped to $20,000 and the total from $85,000 to $100,000. The name has been changed from Pensacola Open to Monsanto Open for one of the sponsors.

The fattened purse has attracted a field of 150 including many of golf's big names.

"I've been playing pretty nicely," said Player, the 1968 British Open champion. "I've always liked playing here, but this year the course is in better shape than ever."

Arnold Palmer is at home in Latrobe, Pa., nursing his ailing right hip and Jack Nicklaus also has decided to skip this one.

Six of this year's 10 tournament winners are here, including first time winners Ken Sill, who took the Citrus Open, and Tom Shaw, who captured the Doral top money.

YMCA Gym Open To Youth Saturday

According to announcement by YMCA Director Harold Hewitt, a gym program is being planned Saturday for boys.

Immediately following the Gra-Y Basketball League at 10:30 a.m., the gym and game room will be open to grade school boys until noon.

At 12:15 p.m., the gym, weight room and game room will be open to Junior High boys. Hewitt said the boys will be supervised at all times. The Junior High period will end at 2 p.m., and will be followed by the Senior program from 2:30 to 4:30 p.m.

Although the program this Saturday is open to members and non-members, later usage of the facilities will be by membership only.

Boys will be expected to follow the Saturday schedule.

For those boys wishing to purchase YMCA memberships, the office will be open from noon until 4:30 p.m. Youth membership information and program schedules can be obtained by calling the YMCA or stopping in at the new facility.

Oakland Defeats Black Hawks, 4-1

By HAL BOCK Associated Press Sports Writer

Bobby Hull, who hardly needs it, has another line in the National Hockey League record book. But his 51st goal of the season may have signaled the last hurrah for the Chicago Black Hawks.

Hull tied Andy Bathgate's modern NHL record by scoring in his 10th consecutive game Wednesday night. But within three minutes after Hull's goal tied the game, Oakland struck for three scores and a 4-1 victory that dropped Chicago deeper in the East Division cellar.

In other games, New York rallied to defeat Pittsburgh 4-3 and Toronto blanked Los Angeles 4-0.

Senators Lose Again With Regulars Absent

By TOM SALADINO Associated Press Sports Writer

Ted Williams still is winless as a manager but it could be that the Thumper is only trying a new approach with his young Washington Senators.

After the Senators had lost Wednesday for the sixth straight time this spring, 5-4, in 10 innings to the Los Angeles Dodgers, Williams calmly explained his theory:

"What did we do last year in the spring? Won all of them, didn't they. And then finished last in the regular season."

Actually, the Senators didn't win them all, but their 17-8 mark in last year's exhibition season was the best in the majors. But when the regular season began, the Senators returned to form and finished last in the American League, 37½ games behind the champion Detroit Tigers.

"I want to look at the kids as long as I can," Williams said. "We'll do better when we get some of our regulars."

Wednesday, Williams' youngsters almost broke the string but were foiled by Willie Davis' run-scoring single in the 10th inning.

Rico Carty, sidelined all of last year with a case of tuberculosis, sparked Atlanta's 5-4 victory over the New York Yankees.

Carty rapped a single and two sacrifice flies, knocking in three runs as the Yanks lost for the first time in five games. Mike Lum added three hits and scored four runs for the Braves. Bill Robinson had a homer for New York.

In other Florida exhibitions, Cincinnati nipped Kansas City 4-3, Minnesota rapped the Chicago White Sox, 5-3, Philadelphia stopped Boston 7-5, Baltimore shut out Houston 4-0, the New York Mets pounded Detroit 12-0, St. Louis whipped Pittsburgh 6-3 and Montreal blasted the Yankees' B squad, 9-4.

In Arizona, Cleveland stopped Seattle 10-7, the Chicago Cubs downed San Francisco 8-6, Oakland beat California 5-2 and San Diego dropped Seattle's B team, 8-2.

Lee May cracked a third-inning homer and the Reds held off a ninth-inning rally by the Royals, which fell a run short.

Tony Oliva, the Twins' designated pinch hitter, slammed a two-run home run in the seventh inning, breaking a 3-3 tie. Gail Hopkins had a homer for the White Sox.

The Phillies took advantage of Red Sox errors and scored four unearned runs. Tony Congiario dropped a fly ball in the seventh inning, leading to three runs. The Phils' Larry Hise slammed his third home run of the spring and added a run-scoring double.

The Orioles got three-hit pitching from Mike Cuellar, Dick Hall and Pete Richert in downing the Astros. Cuellar limited his ex-mates to two hits in five innings. Frank Robinson and Dave Johnson each knocked in a run and had two hits apiece for the winners.

The Mets pounded three homers, including a grand slammer by rookie pitcher Gary Gentry and a three-run shot by Art Shamsky, in routing the Tigers on four hits. Cleon Jones added a solo clout for the Mets.

The Cardinals rapped Pirate starter Steve Blass for four second inning runs and got shutout pitching from Mike Torrez and Bo Belinsky before the Pirates got single tallies in the last three innings. Al Oliver had four hits for the losers.

Bob Bailey and Mack Jones clubbed two-run homers in leading the Expos over the Yankee B team.

The Indians took advantage of third baseman Mike Ferraro's eighth inning error, exploding for six unearned runs in stopping the Pilots. Cleveland had six hits, coupled with two more Pilot errors in the rally.

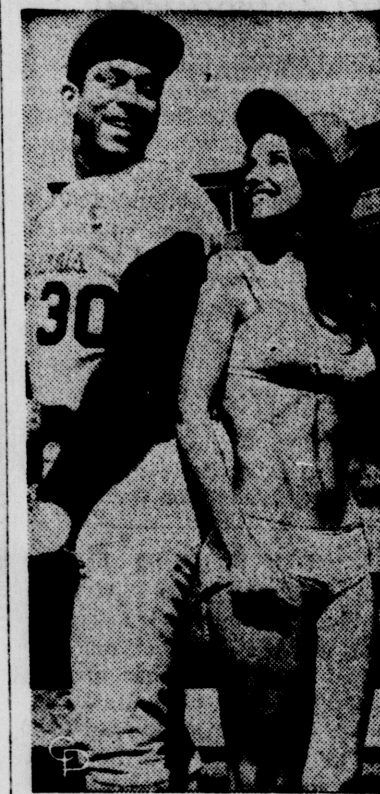

Rookie Oscar Gamble drove in three runs, including a two-run double in the second inning, leading the Cubs over the Giants. Willie Mays rapped his first homer of the spring and Dick Dietz had a two-run pinch blast for the G'ants.

Gamble was filling in for the injured Adolfo Phillips, the Cubs regular center fielder who was struck by a pitch and suffered a linear fracture of the right wrist Tuesday. Phillips will be out two weeks.

Another casualty was A's outfielder Tommy Reynolds, hit near his left ear by a Greg Washburn pitch in the Oakland victory over the Angels. Reggie Jackson had two hits and two RBI for the A's.

Reynolds, knocked unconscious by the ball, regained consciousness in the dressing room and was kept overnight in the hospital on a precautionary basis.

The Padres took advantage of 10 walks in stopping Seattle's B team.

The rugged 6-foot-8 Unseld, stole a rebound from an unsuspecting Willis Reed of New York with four seconds remaining—was fouled—and calmly dropped in both free throws for a 111-110 victory over the Knicks.

And in Philadelphia, the Boston Celtics dropped Philadelphia three games behind the Bullets with a 126-117 victory in another crucial NBA game Wednesday night.

Baltimore holds a four-game margin in the all-important loss column over Philadelphia and five over New York. The Bullets have seven games remaining while Philadelphia and New York have five left.

UCLA, New Mexico State Clash

By TED MEIER
Associated Press Sports Writer
Will UCLA be fired up against New Mexico State tonight?

That is the big question in college basketball as the country's top-ranked Bruins play their first game in the NCAA championship tourney in quest of an unprecedented third straight national title.

"We were not fired up, they wanted it more than we did," said Johnny Wooden, UCLA coach, after Southern California had snapped UCLA's 41-game winning streak last Saturday 46-44.

Speculation immediately arose in some quarters that Lew Alcindor, 7-foot-1½ All-American and Player of the Year had become physically tired from the long season along with the other UCLA players.

That matter should be settled one way or the other in the game at Los Angeles where the Bruins oppose the same team they beat in the west regional a year ago 58-49.

"No team should have to open with UCLA two years in a row," said Lou Henson, New Mexico State coach. He added, however, that "our boys will be more at ease against them this time." The 12th-ranked Aggies have a 24-3 record to UCLA's 25-1.

The game is one of eight second round NCAA contests to be played as doubleheaders at four regional sites and involving 12 teams in the final Associated Press poll of the season.

North Carolina, No. 4 with a 25-3 record is pitted against No. 9 Duquesne, 20-4, and No. 5 Davidson, 26-2, goes against No. 8 St. John's, N.Y., 23-4, in the East Regional at College Park, Md.

No. 6 Purdue, 20-4 with high scoring Rick Mount, meets unranked Miami, Ohio, 15-10, and No. 7 Kentucky, 22-4, battles No. 14 Marquette, 23-4, in the Midwest Regional at Madison, Wis.

At Manhattan, Kan., in the Midwest Regional, it's No. 11 Drake, 23-4, against unranked

Texas A&M, 18-7, and No. 18 Colorado, 20-6, vs. unranked

Colorado State U., 16-6. Preceding the UCLA-New Mexico State game in the West Regional at Los Angeles, No. 3 Santa Clara, 26-1 tangles with unranked Weber State, 26-2.

The first games in the National Invitation Tourney at New York also will be played tonight. Temple, 13-8, meets Florida, 18-8, in the opener of the NIT doubleheader followed by Tulsa, 19-7, vs. St. Peter's, N.J., 20-6.

Lambert is the shortest member of the Class AA team. The 5-foot 9-inch guard set a four-game tournament scoring record of 117 points this year. Averaging 26.6 points per game, Lambert had a total of 385 points.

He made 41 per cent of his field goal attempts and 85.5 per cent of his foul shots during the season. In addition to leading his team in total scoring and free throw percentage, he also was the team's leading rebounder, pulling a total of 159 missed shots from the boards during the season.

Randy Halley, a transfer student from Vinton County High School, was Circleville's leading scorer this year with a 15.5 point per game average.

A JUNIOR, Halley was also named to the first unit of the All-South Central Ohio League basketball squad.

Fausnaugh led the Logan Elm squad in scoring. The 5-9 junior averaged nearly 18 points a game and holds the school's single game scoring record of 38 points.

Wayne Simpson Wins For Cincy

Wayne Simpson Wins For Cincy

TAMPA, Fla. (AP) — Rookie pitcher Wayne Simpson of Cincinnati baffled the Kansas City Royals Wednesday with his speed—especially on the bases.

Simpson, 21, beat out an infield hit in the fifth inning, stole second base and scored what proved to be the game's winning run as the Reds edged Kansas City 4-3.

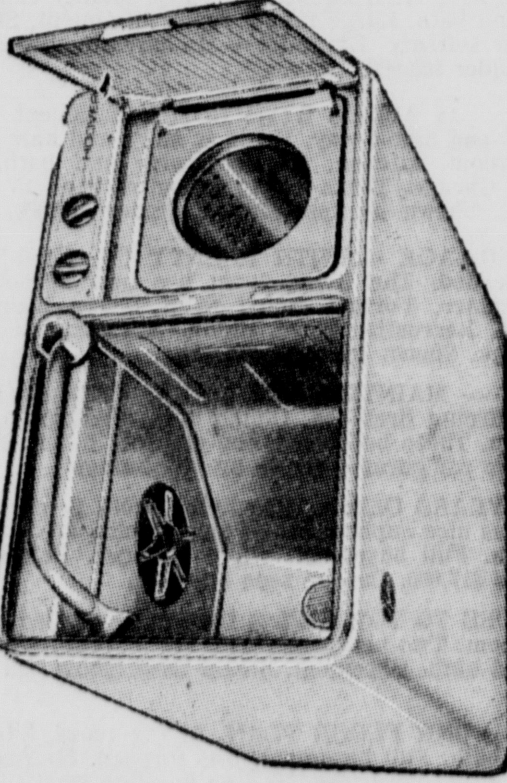

Simpson tapped the ball down the third baseline, Bob Oliver fielded it nonchalantly and the pitcher crossed the bag before the throw. Simpson then got the steal sign and made second with out a throw.

4 Area Cagers Make First Team All-Central District

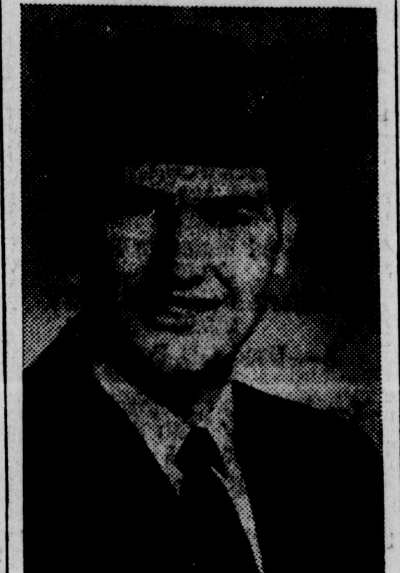

Dale Lambert of Teays Valley was named to the All Central District Class AA basketball team while Royce Woolever and

DALE LAMBERT
Danny Fausnaugh of Logan Elm and Greg Bigam of Westfall made the Class A dream team.
Named to the second team Class AA was Randy Halley, Circleville's nifty little guard, Tony Lightle of Westfall made second team Class A.

The Associated Press All-District teams were announced today. Eddie Ratleff, top gun on Columbus East, the defending Class AA champion, is the high school basketball player of the year in the Central District. The panel of sports writers who picked the All District team for the AP also tabbed Gary Lawrence of Granville and Ty Cawmer of Licking Valley as co-players of the year in Class A.

EAST'S Bob Hart and Dick Schenk of Newark were named co-coaches of the year in Double A while Don Christian of Granville and Dick Torbert of Licking Valley landed similar honors in Class A.

GREG BIGAM
Lambert is the shortest member of the Class AA team. The 5-foot 9-inch guard set a four-game tournament scoring record of 117 points this year. Averaging 26.6 points per game, Lambert had a total of 585 points. He made 41 per cent of his field goal attempts and 85.5 per cent of his foul shots during the season. In addition to leading his team in total scoring and free throw percentage, he also was the team's leading rebounder, pulling a total of 159 missed shots from the boards during the season. Randy Halley, a transfer student from Vinton County High School, was Circleville's leading scorer this year with a 15.5 point per game average. A JUNIOR, Halley was also named to the first unit of the All-South Central Ohio League basketball squad. Fausnaugh led the Logan Elm squad in scoring. The 5-9 junior averaged nearly 18 points a game and holds the school's single game scoring record of 38 points.

Woolever, a 6-9 senior, is the tallest member of the All-District Class A team. He led his team in rebounding and also averaged about 18 points a game.

Bigam, a 6-1 junior, was Westfall's leading scorer, averaging nearly 20 points a game. He holds Westfall's single game scoring record of 34 points and single game foul shooting record.

Lightle, the lone area cager to make the Class A second team, is a three year veteran of the Westfall squad, the leading rebounder and the top defensive player on the team. Steve Kinser of Amanda also made the first team. Two Washington C. H. cagers were named to the All-District second team. They are Steve Bowers and Herb Sollars. The Class AA first team: Eddie Ratleff, Columbus East; Alonzo (Nick) Conner, Columbus East; Dwight Lamar, Columbus East; Pat Beasley, Columbus South; Fred Saunders, Columbus Mohawk; Dennis Odle, Newark; Dale Lambert, Teays Valley; Scott Weakley,

Dave Nelson Stars In Cleveland Win

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP)—Cleveland Manager Alvin Dark says the way Dave Nelson is going he's going to be "the American League's most valuable player by next September."

And Dark may not be kidding. Nelson rapped three hits and drove in three runs—including the winning run—as the Indians defeated the Seattle Pilots, 10-7, in a Cactus League game Wednesday.

'Bucky' Waters Back At Duke University

DURHAM, N.C. (AP)—Reymond "Bucky" Waters resigned Wednesday after four years as basketball coach at West Virginia to return as head coach to Duke University. He was Vic Bubas' top assistant for six years.

Waters, 34, succeeds Bubas, who once called him the best assistant coach in the country. Bubas has resigned after 10 years as coach of the Blue Devils, but will remain at Duke in an administrative post. The nature of his new job is to be announced in a few days.

Junior Rifle Club Scores Listed

Scores fired during competition at the Pickaway Junior Rifle Club meeting Tuesday were: Tony Betts, 46, prone; Roger Konkle, 45, sitting; Mark Garner, 42, kneeling; Kenneth Temple, 41, standing. Highest possible score is 50.

USE THE CLASSIFIEDS

Bexley; Mike Stumpf, Columbus West; Mike Browning, Gahanna; Calvin Wade, Columbus Linden and Dave Eschliman, Arlington.

The second team: Steve Callif, Bexley; Brad Hoffman, Columbus South; Ed Stahl, Columbus Walnut Ridge; Harold Sullinger, Columbus Eastmoore; John Snow, Newark Herb Sollars, Washington Court House; Steve Bowers, Washington Court House; John Russell, Buckeye Valley; Randy Halley, Circleville; Dick Atha, Worthington; Dick Conley, Whitehall; Ben Melancon, Columbus Watertown.

Bullets Beat N.Y. Knicks

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Wes Unseld is not a thief, but the Baltimore Bullet rookie is guilty of swiping a victory and virtually locking up the Eastern Division title in the National Basketball Association.

The rugged 6-foot-8 Unseld, stole a rebound from an unsuspecting Willis Reed of New York with four seconds remaining—was fouled—and calmly dropped in both free throws for a 111-110 victory over the Knicks-erbockers, dropping the Bullets four games behind the leaders. And in Philadelphia, the Boston Celtics dropped Philadelphia three games behind the Bullets with a 126-117 victory in another crucial NBA game Wednesday night.

Baltimore holds a four-game margin in the all-important loss column over Philadelphia and five over New York. The Bullets have seven games remaining while Philadelphia and New York have five left.

In other NBA games, Atlanta stopped Chicago 109-90, San Francisco whipped Los Angeles 97-85 and Seattle defeated San Diego 125-112.

Wayne Simpson Wins For Cincy

TAMPA, Fla. (AP)—Rookie pitcher Wayne Simpson of Cincinnati baffled the Kansas City Royals Wednesday with his speed—especially on the bases. Simpson, 21, beat out an infield hit in the fifth inning, stole second base and scored what proved to be the game's winning run as the Reds edged Kansas City 4-3. Simpson tapped the ball down the third baseline, Bob Oliver fielded it nonchalantly and the pitcher crossed the bag before the throw. Simpson then got the steal sign and made second with out a throw.

UCLA, New Mexico State Clash

By TED MEIER
Associated Press Sports Writer
Will UCLA be fired up against New Mexico State tonight?

That is the big question in college basketball as the country's top-ranked Bruins play their first game in the NCAA championship tourney in quest of an unprecedented third straight national title.

"We were not fired up, they wanted it more than we did," said Johnny Wooden, UCLA coach, after Southern California had snapped UCLA's 41-game winning streak last Saturday 46-44.

Speculation immediately arose in some quarters that Lew Alcindor, 7-foot-11½ All-American and Player of the Year had become physically tired from the long season along with the other UCLA players.

That matter should be settled one way or the other in the game at Los Angeles where the Bruins oppose the same team they beat in the west regional a year ago 59-49.

"No team should have to open with UCLA two years in a row," said Lou Henson, New Mexico State coach. He added, however, that "our boys will be more at ease against them this time." The 12th-ranked Aggies have a 24-3 record to UCLA's 25-1.

The game is one of eight second round NCAA contests to be played as doubleheaders at four regional sites and involving 12 teams in the final Associated Press poll of the season.

North Carolina, No. 4 with a 25-3 record is pitted against No. 9 Duquesne, 20-4, and No. 5 Davidson, 26-2, goes against No. 8 St. John's, N.Y., 23-4, in the Fausnaugh, Logan Elm; Steve Kinser Amanda; Rick Thomas, Granville; Nat Coe, Columbus Academy and Dave Riffel, Heath.

The second team:

Tony Lightle, Westfall; Dave Rutledge, Granville; Rod Lake, Licking Valley; Don Eaton, Lancaster Fenwick; Gary Sabo, Newark Catholic; Jim Riley, Newark Catholic; Dan Weston, Ridgedale; Dave Schorr, Ridgedale; Ed Renemans, Danville and Jim Worley, Heath.

East Regional at College Park, Md.

Texas A&M, 18-7, and No. 18 Colorado, 20-6, vs. unranked

The first games in the National Invitation Tourney at New York also will be played tonight. Temple, 18-8, meets Florida, 18-8, in the opener of the NIT doubleheader followed by Tulsa, 26-1 tangles with unranked Weber State, 26-2.

19-7, vs. St. Peter's, N.J., 20-6.

STOP!

Stop thinking you can't afford an Olds.

(12 Olds models are priced under $2999.)*

Think an Olds is out of your league? It's not. You're closer to Olds than you think. Take this Cutlass S. It's just one of twelve Olds models priced under $2999. And it's got all the things you like. A Rocket 350 V-8 or Action-Line Six. Hideaway windshield wipers. Full carpeting. Right on down the line. So why settle for the ordinary when it's so easy to own an Olds.

Thinking used car? But no new treatment on your Olds dealer's used car lot. Large selection of late models at low prices.

In Memoriam

In loving memory of PFC William Dean who departed this earth March 13, 1968 on his 19th birthday on the battlefield of Viet Nam. Now Billy is home safe at last. In the presence of Jesus everlasting arms. Weep not, I can almost hear him say. We'll meet in the morning, but for now Jesus knows best. In heaven's beauty we'll have Billy to be together. With Jesus, in his glorious presence. Yes, Billy, went home to be with Jesus throughout endless days. In that morning, home safe at last, Jesus our Savior will say. Shake hands with Billy again. Sadly missed by parents, George, Shirley Dean, Sister Nancy.

In Memoriam

In loving memory of PFC William
Dean who departed this earth March 13, 1968 on his 19th birthday on the battlefield of Viet Nam.
Now Billy is home safe at last.
In the presence of Jesus everlasting arms.
Weep not, I can almost hear him say
We'll meet in the morning, but for now Jesus knows best.
In heaven's beauty we'll have eternity to be together
With Jesus, in his glorious presence.
Yes, Billy, went home to be with Jesus throughout endless days.
In that morning, home safe at last,
Jesus our Savior will say
Shake hands with Billy again.
Sadly missed by parents, George,
Shirley Dean, Sister Nancy

League Of Ohio Sportsmen Honors Famed Botanist

Floyd Bartley, Route 4, was named Conservation Educator of the Year at the Governor's Award Banquet of the League of Ohio Sportsmen in Columbus, in cooperation with the National Wildlife Federation.

"Like all great and able leaders, Floyd Bartley has enriched the lives of thousands of adults and children who continue to follow him on nature's trails," said Fred E. Morr, director, Ohio Department of Natural Resources, who served as master of ceremonies for the event. "Bartley knows every living thing along their path."

In naming Bartley for the award, the League of Ohio Sportsmen cited Bartley's early interest in collecting and classifying plant life. He frequently found plants where the textbook said they should not be found.

"His questioning mind has led to many discoveries and Ohio is now to be proud of Floyd Bartley as one of America's outstanding field botanists," said Morr.

BARTLEY discovered a new reed grass in Jackson County, and Bartleva moss, named for him.

Once, when conducting 30 members of the American Fern Society on a three-day tour of southern Ohio, he was able to show them species of ferns they never had seen.

Bartley was a farm boy who loved the out-of-doors. This gave him an early advantage in his life study of natural history. The entire United States has been his hunting ground for

Annual YMCA Meeting Set March 27

The Annual Meeting for the Pickaway County YMCA will be held 6:30 p.m., March 27, at the 4-H Grange Building.

At this time the first annual membership campaign under the leadership of Nelson Stevens will get under way.

Featured speaker during the evening will be James Jones, assistant coach at Ohio State University.

The committee has arranged an informative and entertaining program. Newly elected board members will be installed and there will be special recognition for significant service.

THIS banquet is open to anyone interested in the YMCA and its progress here in Pickaway County.

Reports will also be given on programs now in progress here in Pickaway County.

Reports will also be given on programs now in progress and future plans for our new facility.

The program will be of interest to the whole family.

The "Y" annual meeting committee is headed by Jeanne Bach with David Munson, Robert Phillips, Paul Marshall and Dick Davis as members.

Tickets can be obtained from any of the YMCA Board members or by calling the YMCA office.

CONSERVATIONIST — Floyd Bartley (center), widely acclaimed for his knowledge of Ohio's plant life, accepts the Conservation Educator of the Year Award from Attorney General Paul W. Brown (right). At left is Emmitt Barnhart of Circleville, a friend of Bartley. The award was given by the League of Ohio Sportsmen at the Governor's Award Banquet in Columbus, in cooperation with the National Wildlife Federation.

exploration. It is reputed that he can recognize four-fifths of Ohio's 2,700 plants.

"Perseverance and enthusiasm have enshrined Bartley for all time at the Washington, D. C., and in the New York Botanical Gardens," said Morr. "His works and collections also are represented at his two favorite schools, Ohio State University and Ohio University."

The handsome award was presented to Bartley by Attorney General Paul W. Brown. The award was surmounted with the figure of a deer in full color.

Powell Denies Allegations Of Do-Nothing, Raps House

WASHINGTON (AP) — Adam Clayton Powell, congressman, lecturer and fisherman says it's the House that should be criticized for inactivity—not he.

Powell, who appeared on the House floor Wednesday for the first time since early January, said the House has done so little there is not much need for anyone to be present.

Limping on a foot injured in a fishing accident, Powell said he has been far from inactive in recent months. He is keeping busy on a college speaking tour that will earn him about $90,000 this year, he said.

Powell said the House has done almost nothing during his absence, frequently meeting for less than half-an-hour a day, taking long weekends and a 10-day recess.

As for the needs of his Harlem district, he said, his staff is taking care of them. "It's the staff that does the district work," he said. "Every member knows that."

The record of House activity bears out Powell's comments. The bill on which he voted Wednesday—to increase U.S. funding of the International Development Association—is the first major legislation to be considered by the House this year. In fact, the busiest time it has had so far was on opening day, when it wrangled for hours over the issue of seating Powell, who had been denied his seat in the last Congress.

He had to agree to pay a $25,000 fine to get his seat, but from his report of the lush pickings on the campus lecture circuit, that apparently will be painless.

Bus Service To End In Lancaster

Eighty years of public transportation in Lancaster will come to an end on March 29 when the Lancaster Transit Corp. will terminate its bus service.

A statement from Ralph K. Rockwood, president of the transit corporation said, "The necessity to make this decision has come after long deliberation and has been determined solely on financial inability to continue the business."

Lack of bus service to the community will affect workers, school children, persons without cars or those who do not drive, senior citizens and even the occasional passenger.

House And Senate To Get Failing Newspaper Bills

WASHINGTON (AP) — More than 80 members of the House have introduced a bill to allow two newspapers operating under a joint arrangement to be treated as a single entity under antitrust laws.

Rep. Ed Edmondson, D-Okla., one of the sponsors, said the bill would amend the antitrust laws to preserve news and editorial competition. Sen. Daniel Inouye, D-Hawaii, has said he will introduce similar legislation in the Senate.

Edmondson said the Supreme Court's ruling Monday that competing daily papers violate the antitrust laws when they pool profits and use the same advertising departments would stifle competition.

"While our antitrust laws were intended to maintain competition, the application of these laws to the newspaper industry, as exemplified by the Supreme Court's decision in the Tucson newspaper case, will have the opposite result," he told the House.

The measure, known as the Newspaper Preservation Bill, may run into trouble when it comes before the Judiciary committee for action. There was little support for a measure last year, which was opposed by subcommittee chairman Emanuel Celler, D-N.Y.
